HOW TO READ THE ANALYTICAL TRANSLATION OF THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

Passages of Isaiah translated from Hebrew prose extend from margin to margin. Passages translated from poetic verse are indented.

Words inserted in the text to clarify incomplete or difficult phrasing appear in italics.

Metaphorical key words that function as pseudonyms of Jehovah, his servant, or the king of Assyria/Babylon appear in bold.

A superscript letter after a problematic word or phrase in the text,<sup>a</sup> or two identical superscript letters, <sup>b</sup>one before and one after,<sup>b</sup> indicate a footnote.

Footnotes are marked alphabetically within each chapter and identify a verse by its number.

Abbreviations in footnotes include:

MT—The Hebrew Masoretic Text from which the new translation was made.

1QIsa<sup>a</sup>—The complete Dead Sea scroll of Isaiah of St. Mark's Monastery.

LXX—The Greek Septuagint Version of the Old Testament.

Words or phrases relocated in the text are offset by brackets [ . . . ] and indicated by footnotes.<sup>c</sup>

Verses relocated in the text are indicated by footnotes.<sup>d</sup>

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

I The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz which he beheld concerning Judea and Jerusalem during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah:

- <sup>2</sup> Hear, O heavens! Give heed, O earth!
Jehovah has spoken:
63:8-10 I have reared sons, brought them up,
but they have revolted against me.
- <sup>3</sup> The ox knows its owner,
the ass its master's stall, 45:6 but Israel does not know;
my people are insensible.
- <sup>4</sup> Alas, a nation astray,
3:9 a people weighed down by sin,
the offspring of wrongdoers,
perverse children:
they have forsaken Jehovah,
30:9-11 they have spurned the Holy One of Israel,
they have lapsed into apostasy.
- <sup>5</sup> Why be smitten further
by adding to your waywardness?
9:15 The whole head is sick,
the whole heart diseased.
- <sup>6</sup> From the soles of the feet even to the head
there is nothing sound,
only wounds and bruises and festering sores;
17:11 they have not been pressed out or bound up,
nor soothed with ointment.

- 5:5-6      7 Your land is ruined,
your cities burned with fire;
your native soil is devoured by aliens in your presence,
laid waste at its takeover by foreigners.
- 4:5-6      8 The Daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,
a hut in a melon field,
a city under siege.
- 36:1-2      9 Had not Jehovah of Hosts left us a few survivors,
we should have been as Sodom,
or become like Gomorrah.
- 28:14      10 Hear the word of Jehovah,
O leaders of Sodom;
give heed to the law of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!
- 43:23-24    11 For what purpose are your abundant sacrifices to me? says Jehovah.
I have had my fill of offerings of rams
and fat of fatted beasts;
the blood of bulls and sheep and he-goats
I do not want.
- 38:11      12 When you come to see me,
who requires you to trample my courts so?
- 58:13-14    13 Bring no more worthless offerings;
they are as a loathsome incense to me.
As for convening meetings at the New Month
and on the Sabbath, wickedness with the solemn gathering
I cannot approve.
- 46:3      14 Your monthly and regular meetings
my soul detests.
They have become a burden on me;
I am weary of putting up with them.
- 59:2-3      15 When you spread forth your hands,
I will conceal my eyes from you;
though you pray at length, I will not hear—your hands are filled with blood.

- 55:7      <sup>16</sup> Wash yourselves clean:
               remove your wicked deeds
               from before my eyes;
               cease to do evil.
- 58:6      <sup>17</sup> Learn to do good: demand justice,
               stand up for the oppressed;
               plead the cause of the fatherless,
               appeal on behalf of the widow.
- 43:25     <sup>18</sup> Come now, let us put it to the test,
               says Jehovah:
               though your sins are as scarlet,
               they can be made white as snow;
               though they have reddened as crimson,
               they may become white as wool.
- 3:10      <sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obey,
               you shall eat the good of the land.
- 3:25      <sup>20</sup> But if you are unwilling and disobey,
               you shall be eaten by the sword.
               By his mouth Jehovah has spoken it.
- 57:7-8    <sup>21</sup> How the faithful city
               has become a harlot!
               She was filled with justice;
               righteousness made its abode in her,
               but now murderers.
- 5:23      <sup>22</sup> Your silver has become dross,
               your wine diluted with water.
- 10:2      <sup>23</sup> Your rulers are renegades,
               accomplices of robbers:
               with one accord they love bribes
               and run after rewards;
               they do not dispense justice to the fatherless,
               nor does the widow's case come before them.
- 59:18     <sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts,
               the Valiant One of Israel, declares, Woe to them! I will relieve me of my adversaries,
               avenge me of my enemies.

- 48:10      <sup>25</sup> I will restore my hand over you and smelt away your dross as in a crucible,<sup>a</sup>
                  and remove all your alloy.
- 19:18      <sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges as at the first,
                  and your counsellors as in the beginning.
                  After this you shall be called the City of Righteousness, a faithful city.
- 32:17      <sup>27</sup> For Zion shall be ransomed by justice,
                  those of her who repent by righteousness.
- 13:9      <sup>28</sup> But criminals and sinners shall be altogether shattered
                  when those who forsake Jehovah are annihilated.
- 65:3      <sup>29</sup> And you<sup>b</sup> will be ashamed of the oaks you cherished and blush for the parks you were fond of;
                  <sup>30</sup> you shall become like an oak whose leaves wither,
                  and as a garden that has no water.
- 37:18–19      <sup>31</sup> The mighty shall be as refuse,
                  and their works a spark;
                  both shall burn up alike,
                  and there shall be none to extinguish.

2 A prophecy concerning Judea and Jerusalem which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw in vision:

- 16:1      <sup>2</sup> In the latter days
                  the mountain of Jehovah's house shall become established
                  as<sup>a</sup> the head of the mountains;
                  it shall be preeminent among the hills,
                  and all nations will flow to it.
- 66:12      <sup>3</sup> Many peoples shall go, saying, Come, let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah,
                  to the house of the God of Jacob,

- that he may instruct us in his ways,
 that we may follow in his paths.
 51:4 For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
 and from Jerusalem the word of Jehovah.
- 11:4 <sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations
 and arbitrate for many peoples.
 They will beat their swords into plowshares,
 their spears into pruning hooks:
 54:16-17 nation will not lift the sword against nation,
 nor will they learn warfare any more.
- 60:1-4 <sup>5</sup> O house of Jacob, come,
 let us follow the light of Jehovah.
- <sup>6</sup> For you, O Jehovah, have forsaken your people,
 the house of Jacob, because,
 like the Philistines,
 they provide themselves with<sup>b</sup>
 mystics from the East
 and are content with the infantile heathen.
- 31:7 <sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold and there is no end to their wealth;
 their land is full of horses
 and there is no end to their chariots.
- 17:7-8 <sup>8</sup> Their land is full of idols:
 they adore the works of their hands,
 things their own fingers have made.
- 5:15 <sup>9</sup> Mankind is brought low
 when men thus debase themselves.
 Forbear them not!
- 40:5 <sup>10</sup> Go into the rocks; hide in the dust
 from the awesome presence of Jehovah
 and from the brightness of his glory.
- 5:16 <sup>11</sup> The haughty eyes of men shall be lowered and man's pride abased;
 Jehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.

- 12 Jehovah of Hosts has a day in store
 13:6, 9, 11 for all the proud and arrogant and for all who are exalted,
 that they may be brought low.
- 10:33-34 13 It shall come against all the lofty cedars of Lebanon that lift themselves up high,
 and against all the oaks of Bashan,
 37:24 14 against all high mountains and elevated hills,
 15 against every tall tower and reinforced wall, 16 against [all vessels at sea,]<sup>c</sup>
 23:1 both merchant ships<sup>d</sup> and pleasure craft.
 17 The haughtiness of men shall be abased,
 and man's pride brought low;
 Jehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.
- 43:11-13 18 He will utterly supplant the false gods.
 19 Men will go into caves in the rocks
 and holes in the ground,
 30:27 from the awesome presence of Jehovah
 and from the brightness of his glory,
 when he arises and strikes terror on earth.
- 20 In that day men will throw away
 to the moles and to the bats 30:22 their idols of silver and gods of gold which they have made for themselves to adore.
- 21 Men will go into crevices in the rocks
 and fissures in the cliffs,
 64:1-3 from the awesome presence of Jehovah
 and from the brightness of his glory,
 when he arises and strikes terror on earth.
- 22 Desist from the things of man,
 40:6-8 in whose nostrils is but breath!
 For of what consideration is he?

- 3 Even now, the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, deprives Judea and Jerusalem
of both staff and crutch—
9:20 all food supply and water supply,
2 the valiant man and soldier,
the magistrate and prophet, the augur and elder,
3 the officer and dignitary,
advisers, skilled craftsmen, and orators.
1:23 4 I, Jehovah, will make adolescents their rulers;
delinquents will lord it over them.
5 People will oppress one another,
every man his neighbor.
9:17 The young will be insolent to the elderly,
the vile to the honorable.
- 6 Then will a man apprehend a kinsman
of his father's house, and say, 24:2-4 You have a tunic: be our leader
and take charge of this ruination!
7 But he will raise his hand in that day and swear, I am no physician.
59:4-6 There is neither food nor clothing in my house;
you cannot make me a leader of the people.
- 8 Jerusalem will falter and Judea fall 57:4-5 because their tongue and their actions are contrary to Jehovah,
an affront to his glory before his very eyes.
- 9 The look on their faces betrays them:
1:10 they flaunt their sin like Sodom;
they cannot hide it.
Woe to their souls;
they have brought disaster upon themselves!
- 62:8-9 10 Tell the righteous it shall be well with them;
they shall eat the fruits of their own labors.
11 But woe to the wicked
13:11 when calamity overtakes them:
they shall be paid back
for the deeds they have done!

- 12 As for my people, babes subject them;
 women wield authority over them.
- 9:16 O my people, your leaders mislead you,
 abolishing your traditional ways.
- 13 Jehovah will take a stand and contend with them;
 4:1:1 he has arisen to judge the nations.
- 14 He will bring to trial the elders of his people and their rulers, and say to them,
- 5:7 It is you who have devoured the vineyard;
 you fill your houses by depriving the needy.
- 15 What do you mean by oppressing my people,
 humbling the faces of the poor?
 10:1-2 says Jehovah of Hosts.
- 16 Jehovah says, moreover,
 Because the women of Zion are haughty
 and put on airs, painting their eyes,
 ever flirting when they walk
 and clacking with their feet,
- 57:12 17 my Lord will afflict the scalps
 of the women of Zion with baldness;
 Jehovah will expose their private parts.
- 18 In that day my Lord will strip away their finery—the anklets, head ornaments and crescents, 19 the pendants, chains and scarves, 20 tiaras, bracelets and ribbons, zodiac signs and charm amulets, 21 the rings, the noselets, 22 the elegant dress, the shawl, the kerchief and the purse, 23 hosiery, sheer linen, millinery, and cloaks.
- 24 And instead of perfume there shall be a stench,
 instead of the girdle, a piece of twine,
 instead of the coiffure, baldness, 32:11 instead of the festive dress, a loincloth of burlap;
 for in place of beauty
 there shall be ignominy.<sup>a</sup>
- 25 Your men shall be felled by the sword,
 your might overthrown in war.
- 51:19 26 Her gateways shall lie bereaved and forlorn;
 she shall sit on the ground destitute.

4 Seven women will take hold of one man
 in that day, and say,
 We will eat our own food,
 wear our own clothes, 32:2 only let us be called by your name—
 take away our reproach!

<sup>2</sup> In that day the plant of Jehovah shall be beautiful and glorious, and the earth's fruit the pride and glory of the survivors of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Then shall they who are left in Zion and they who remain in Jerusalem be called holy—all who were inscribed to be among the living at Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> This shall be when my Lord has washed away the excrement of the women of Zion and cleansed Jerusalem of its bloodshed, in the spirit of justice, by a burning wind. <sup>5</sup> Over the whole site of Mount Zion, and over its solemn assembly, Jehovah will form a cloud by day and a mist glowing with fire by night: above all that is glorious shall be a canopy. <sup>6</sup> It shall be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, a secret refuge from the downpour and from rain.

5 Let me sing for my Beloved a love song about his vineyard:
 My Beloved had a vineyard
 on the fertile brow of a hill.
 27:2-3 <sup>2</sup> He cultivated it, clearing it of stones,
 and planted it with choice vines.
 He built a watchtower in its midst
 and hewed for it a winepress as well.
 Then he expected it to yield grapes,
 3:14-15 but it produced wild grapes.
<sup>3</sup> Now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and you men of Judea, please judge between me and my vineyard!
<sup>4</sup> What more could have been done
 for my vineyard than I have done for it?
 When I expected it to yield grapes,
 64:6 why did it produce wild grapes?
<sup>5</sup> Let me now inform you what I will do to my vineyard:
 5:24 I will have its hedge removed and let it be burned;

- I will have its wall broken through and let it be trampled.
 1:7-8
- <sup>6</sup> I will make it a desolation:
 it shall neither be pruned nor hoed,
 but briars and thorns shall overgrow it.
 7:23-25
 Moreover, I will forbid the rainclouds to rain on it.
- <sup>7</sup> The vineyard of Jehovah of Hosts is the house of Israel and the people of Judah his cherished grove.
 He expected justice,
 but there was injustice;
he expected righteousness,
 but there was an outcry.
 59:3-4
- <sup>8</sup> Woe to those who join house to house
 and link field to field till no place is left,
 and you are restricted to dwell
 in the centers of the land!
 32:19*
- <sup>9</sup> Jehovah of Hosts spoke this in my hearing:
 Surely many buildings shall lie desolate,
 large and fine houses unoccupied.
 6:11-12
- <sup>10</sup> A ten-acre<sup>a</sup> vineyard shall yield but one bath,<sup>b</sup>
 a homer<sup>c</sup> of seed but an ephah.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to those who go after liquor
 as soon as they arise in the morning,
 who linger at night parties, inflamed by wine!
 22:12-13
- <sup>12</sup> There are harps and lyres,
 drums, flutes, and wine at their banquets,
 but they regard not what Jehovah does,
 nor perceive his hands at work.
 26:11
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore are my people exiled
 without knowing why;
 their best men die of famine,
 their masses perish with thirst.

---

<sup>a</sup>IO Hebrew ten-yoke, that is, the land plowed by ten yoke of oxen in one day.

- 14 Sheol becomes ravenous,
 opening its mouth insatiably;
 14:11 into it descend their elite with the masses,
 their boisterous ones and revelers.
- 15 Mankind is brought low
 when men debase themselves,
 causing the eyes of the high-minded to be downcast.
- 2:17 16 But Jehovah of Hosts will be exalted
 by a just judgment,
 the holy God show himself holy
 by his righteousness.
- 14:1 17 Then shall his sheep feed in their pasture,
 and proselytes eat in the ruins of the affluent.
- 18 Woe to those drawn to sin by vain attachments,
 hitched to transgression like a trailer,
- 40:10 19 who think, Let him quickly speed up his work
 so we may see it!
 Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel
 soon come to pass, and we will know!
- 65:2 20 Woe to those who suppose what is evil to be good
 and what is good, evil!
 They put darkness for light
 and light for darkness;
 they make bitterness sweet and the sweet bitter.
- 29:14 21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes
 and clever in their own view!
- 22 Woe to those who are valiant at drinking wine
 and champions at mixing liquor!
- 1:23 23 Woe to those who acquit the guilty for a bribe but deny justice to the innocent!
- 37:26-27 24 As a blazing fire consumes stubble,
 and as dry weeds wane before the flame,
 so shall their roots decay away
 and their blossoms fly up like dust.
- 1:10 For they have despised the law of Jehovah of Hosts and reviled the words of the Holy One of Israel.

- 10:5      <sup>25</sup> Therefore the anger of Jehovah is kindled against his people:
 he draws back his hand against them
 and strikes them;
 14:16      the mountains quake, and their corpses
 lie like litter about the streets.
 Yet for all this his anger is not abated;
 his hand is upraised still.
- 13:2, 5    <sup>26</sup> He raises an ensign to distant nations and summons them from beyond the horizon.
 Forthwith they come, swiftly and speedily.
<sup>27</sup> Not one of them grows weary,
 nor does any stumble;
 29:10      they do not drowse or fall asleep.
 Their waist-belts come not loose
 nor their sandal thongs undone.
- 13:18      <sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharp;
 all their bows are strung.
 The tread of their warhorses resembles flint;
 their chariot wheels revolve like a whirlwind.
- 42:22      <sup>29</sup> They have the roar of a lion;
 they are aroused like young lions:
 growling, they seize the prey, and escape,
 and none comes to the rescue.
- 17:12      <sup>30</sup> He shall be stirred up against them in that day,
 even as the Sea is stirred up.
 And should one look to the land,
 there too shall be a distressing gloom,
 8:22      for the daylight shall be darkened
 by an overhanging mist.

6 In the year of King Uzziah's death, I saw my Lord seated on a throne, highly exalted, the skirt of his robe filling the sanctuary. <sup>2</sup> Seraphs stood by him overhead, each having six wings—with two they could veil their presence, with two conceal their location, and with two fly about. <sup>3</sup> They called out to one another, and said,

5:16 Most holy is Jehovah of Hosts;
the consummation of all the earth is his glory!

<sup>5</sup> Then I thought, Woe is me: I have been struck dumb, for I am a man of unclean speech, and I live among a people of unclean speech: I have seen the King, Jehovah of Hosts, with my own eyes!

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphs flew to me carrying an ember which he had taken with tongs from the altar. <sup>7</sup> Touching it to my mouth, he said, See, this has touched your lips: your sins are taken away, your transgressions atoned for.

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of my Lord saying, Whom shall I send? Who will go for us? And I replied, Here am I; send me!

Go on hearing, but not understanding;

42:18-20 Go on seeing, but not perceiving.

<sup>10</sup> Make the heart of these people grow fat;
dull their ears and shut their eyes,

lest they see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,

29:13 understand in their heart,
and repent, and be healed.

<sup>11</sup> And I replied, For how long, my Lord? And he said,

Until the cities lie desolate

17:9 and without inhabitant,

the houses without a man,

and the land ravaged to ruin.

<sup>12</sup> For Jehovah will drive men away,
and great shall be the exodus

5:8 from the centers of the land.

remain in it, or return,

1:7 they shall be burned.

But like the terebinth or the oak

when it is felled, whose stump remains alive,

4:3 so shall the holy offspring be what is left standing.

7 When Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but could not overpower it.

<sup>2</sup> And when the house of David was informed that Aram was leading Ephraim on, the king's mind and the minds of his people were shaken, as trees in a forest are shaken by a gale.

<sup>3</sup> Then Jehovah said to Isaiah, Go out and meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-Jashub,<sup>a</sup> at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Reservoir, on the road to the Laundry Plaza. <sup>4</sup> Say to him, See to it that you remain calm and unafraid. Be not intimidated by these two smoking tail ends of kindling, by the burning anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah,<sup>5</sup> even though Aram has conceived an evil plot against you, as has Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, who say, <sup>6</sup> Let us invade Judah and stir up trouble there. We will take it for ourselves by force and set a ruler over it—the son of Tabeal.

It shall not occur or transpire.

<sup>8</sup> For as surely as Damascus is the capital of Aram and Rezin the head of Damascus, 17:1-3      within sixty-five<sup>b</sup> years shall Ephraim be shattered as a nation.

<sup>9</sup> But as surely as Samaria is the capital of Ephraim and the son of Remaliah the head of Samaria, 43:10      you will not believe it,
                  because you are not loyal.

<sup>10</sup> Again Jehovah addressed Ahaz, and said, <sup>11</sup> Ask a sign for yourself from Jehovah your God, whether in the depths below or in the heights above. <sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said, I will not. I will not put Jehovah to the test.

<sup>13</sup> Then Isaiab said, Take heed, O house of David! Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men? Must you also try the patience of my God?

8 Jehovah said to me, Take a large scroll and write on it in common script: Hasten the plunder, hurry the spoil. <sup>2</sup> And I called in reliable witnesses, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah, to witness for me.

<sup>3</sup> And when I had been with the prophetess, she conceived and gave birth to a son. And Jehovah said to me, Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup> For before the child knows how to say, Father, or Mother, the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be brought before the king of Assyria.

the Waters of Shiloah, which flow gently,
7:1, 4 and rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah,

<sup>7</sup> therefore will my Lord
cause to come up over them
the great and mighty waters of the River—
7:17 the king of Assyria in all his glory.
He will rise up over all his channels
and overflow all his banks.

<sup>8</sup> He will sweep into Judea like a flood and, passing through, reach the very neck;
his outspread wings will span
7:14 the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.

<sup>9</sup> Though nations form pacts,
they shall be routed.
Give heed, all you distant lands!
30:1 You may take courage in one another,
but shall be in fear;
you may arm yourselves,
but shall be terrorized.

<sup>10</sup> Though you hold consultations, 28:15, 18 they shall come to nought;
though you make proposals,
they shall not prove firm: God is with us!

<sup>11</sup> Jehovah spoke to me, clasping my hand, and admonished me not to follow the ways of these people. For he said,

<sup>12</sup> Do not call a conspiracy all that these people
call a conspiracy;
26:3-4 be not afraid or awed
by the thing they fear.

<sup>13</sup> But sanctify Jehovah of Hosts,
making him your fear, him your awe.

<sup>14</sup> And to you he will be a sanctuary,
4:5-6 but to the two houses of Israel
a stumbling block or obstructing rock, 28:13 and a snare, catching unawares
the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Many will stumble into them, 24:17-18 and when they fall shall be broken,
 and when they become ensnared
 shall be taken captive.

29:11-12 <sup>16</sup> For Jehovah has said, Bind up the testimony;
 seal the law among my disciples.

 33:2 who hides his face from the house of Jacob,
 and expect him.

<sup>18</sup> As for me and the children Jehovah has given me, we shall be signs and portents in Israel from Jehovah of Hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

9 But it shall not be gloomy to those who have been in anguish for her. In the past he humbled the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali, but at the last he will exalt the Sea Route by the Jordan in Galilee of the nations.

 60:1-2 have seen a bright light;
 on the inhabitants of the land of the shadow of Death
 has the light dawned.

26:2, 15 <sup>3</sup> You have enlarged the nation and increased its joy;
 they rejoice at your presence
 as men rejoice at harvest time, 33:23 or as men are joyous when they divide spoil.

<sup>b</sup>19 So LXX; phrase not in MT.

- 14:4-5      4 For you have smashed the yoke
that burdened them,
the staff of submission,
the rod of those who subjected them,
10:26-27      as in the day of Midian's defeat.
- 7:14      5 And all boots used in battle
and tunics rolled in blood
have become fuel for bonfires.
- 10:21      6 For to us a child is born, a son appointed,
who will shoulder the burden of government.
He will be called Wonderful Counsellor, One Mighty in Valor,
a Father for Ever, a Prince of Peace—
- 16:5      7 that sovereignty may be extended
and peace have no end;
that, on the throne of David
and over his kingdom,
his rule may be established and upheld 32:1      by justice and righteousness
from this time forth and forever.
The zeal of Jehovah of Hosts will accomplish it.
- 8 This message my Lord sent to Jacob,
and it shall befall Israel.
- 2:11-12      9 And the entire people—
Ephraim and those who dwell in Samaria—shall know of it,
who say in pride and arrogance of heart,
- 10 The bricks have fallen down,
but we will rebuild with hewn stone;
the sycamores have been felled,
but we will replace them with cedars!
- 7:8      11 But Jehovah will strengthen Rezin's enemies against them
when he stirs up their adversaries:
- 2:11-12      12 Aramaeans from the east and Philistines from the west
will devour Israel with open mouth.
- 5:25      Yet for all this his anger is not abated;
his hand is upraised still.

- 1:5 <sup>13</sup> But the people do not turn back
to him who smites them,
nor will they inquire of Jehovah of Hosts.
- <sup>14</sup> Therefore Jehovah will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm top and reed, in a single day;
- <sup>15</sup> the elders or notables are the head,
the prophets who teach falsehoods, the tail.
- 3:12 <sup>16</sup> The leaders of these people have misled them,
and those who are led are confused.
- <sup>17</sup> My Lord is not pleased with their young men,
nor does he pity their fatherless and widows,
because all alike are godless malefactors,
and every mouth utters profanities.
- 52:5
Yet for all this his anger is not abated;
his hand is upraised still.
- 33:11–12 <sup>18</sup> Wickedness shall be set ablaze like a fire,
and briars and thorns shall it consume;
it shall ignite the jungle forests,
and they shall billow upward
in mushrooming clouds of smoke.
- 10:5–7 <sup>19</sup> At the wrath of Jehovah of Hosts
the earth is scorched,
and people are but fuel for the fire.
Men will have no compassion for one another.
- 8:21 <sup>20</sup> They will snatch on the right, yet remain hungry;
they will devour on the left, but not be satisfied:
men will eat the flesh of their own offspring.
- <sup>21</sup> Manasseh will turn against Ephraim and Ephraim against Manasseh,
and both will combine against Judah.
- 14:26–27
Yet for all this his anger is not abated;
his hand is upraised still.

10 Woe to those who enact unjust laws,
who draft oppressive legislation—<sup>2</sup> denying justice to the needy, depriving the poor of my people of their right,
making plunder of widows,
mere spoil of the fatherless!

13:6-9      3 What will you do in the day of reckoning
                  when the holocaust overtakes you from afar?
                  To whom will you flee for help?
                  Where will you leave your wealth?

14:16-17    4 There shall nothing remain but to kneel among the captives
                  or fall among the slain.

                 Yet for all this his anger is not abated;
                  his hand is upraised still.

7:17, 20    5 Hail the Assyrian, the rod of my anger!
                  He is a staff—my wrath in their hand.<sup>a</sup>

8:4          6 I will commission him against a godless nation, appoint him over the people
                  deserving of my vengeance,
                  to pillage for plunder, to spoliage for spoil,
                  to tread underfoot like mud in the streets.

14:6          7 Nevertheless, it shall not seem so to him;
                  this shall not be what he has in mind.
                  His purpose shall be to annihilate
                  and to exterminate nations not a few.

8 He will say, Are not my commanders kings,
                  one and all?

36:19        9 Has not Calno fared like Carchemish?
                  Is not Hamath as Arpad,
                  Samaria no better than Damascus?

37:18-19    10 As I could do this to the pagan states, whose statues exceeded
                  those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and its images
                  even as I did to Samaria and its idols?

12 But when my Lord has fully accomplished his work in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will punish the king of Assyria for his notorious boasting and infamous conceit, <sup>13</sup> because he said,

- I have done it by my own ability and shrewdness, for I am ingenious.
- 37:11 I have done away with the borders of nations,
I have ravaged their reserves,
I have vastly reduced the inhabitants.
- 33:4 <sup>14</sup> I have impounded the wealth of peoples like a nest,
and I have gathered up the whole world
as one gathers abandoned eggs;
not one flapped its wings,
or opened its mouth to utter a peep.
- 10:33-34 <sup>15</sup> Shall an axe exalt itself
above the one who hews with it,
or a saw vaunt itself
over him who handles it?
- 10:5 As though the rod wielded him who lifts it up!
As though the staff held up the one who is not made of wood!
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore will the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts,
send a consumption into his fertile lands,
and cause a fire to flare up like a burning hearth,
to undermine his glory:
- 30:30, 33 <sup>17</sup> the Light of Israel will be the fire and their Holy One the flame,
and it shall burn up and devour
his briars and thorns in a single day.
- 9:18 <sup>18</sup> His choice forests and productive fields
it will consume, both life and substance, turning them into a rotting morass.
- <sup>19</sup> And the trees left of his forest shall be so few,
a child could record them.
- 1:9 <sup>20</sup> In that day those who survive of Israel and who escape of the house of Jacob will no longer rely on him who struck them,
but will truly rely on Jehovah,
the Holy One of Israel:
- 37:31-32 <sup>21</sup> of Jacob a remnant will return to the One Mighty in Valor.

- 48:18-19      <sup>22</sup> For though your people, O Israel,
                   be as the sands of the sea,
                   only a remnant will return;
                   although annihilation is decreed,
 1:27-28      it shall overflow with righteousness.
- 28:22      <sup>23</sup> For the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, will carry out the utter destruction
                   decreed upon the whole earth.
- 10:5, 15      <sup>24</sup> Therefore, thus says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts:
                   O my people who inhabit Zion,
                   be not afraid of the Assyrians,
                   though they strike you with the rod
                   or raise their staff over you,
                   as did the Egyptians.
- <sup>25</sup> For my anger will very soon come to an end;
                   my wrath will become their undoing.
- 5:30      <sup>26</sup> Jehovah of Hosts will raise the whip against them,
                   as when he struck the Midianites
                   at the Rock of Oreb.
                   His staff is over the Sea,
                   and he will lift it over them
                   as he did to the Egyptians.
- 14:25      <sup>27</sup> In that day their burdens shall be lifted from your shoulders,
                   their yoke removed from your neck:
 9:4      the yoke that wore away your fatness
                   shall by fatness wear away.
- 36:1      <sup>28</sup> He advances on Aiath, passes through Migron;
                   at Micmash he marshals his weaponry.
- 5:26-29      <sup>29</sup> They cross over the pass,
                   stopping overnight at Geba.
                   Ramah is in a state of alarm,
                   Gibeah of Saul is fleeing.
- <sup>30</sup> Cry out, O Daughter of Gallim!
                   Hear her, Laishah; answer her, Anathoth!
- <sup>31</sup> Madmenah has moved out of the way,
                   the inhabitants of Gebim are in full flight.

- 1:8      32 This same day he will but pause at Nob
and signal the advance against the mountain of the Daughter of Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.
- 2:13      33 Then will my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, shatter the towering trees with terrifying power;
the high in stature shall be hewn down,
the lofty ones leveled.
- 32:19*    34 The dense forests shall be battered down
with the force of iron,
and Lebanon fall spectacularly.

- 61:1-3    2 A shoot will spring up from the stock of Jesse and a branch from its graft bear fruit.
- 9:6      2 The Spirit of Jehovah will rest upon him—
the spirit of wisdom and of understanding,
the spirit of counsel and of valor,
the spirit of knowledge
and of the fear of Jehovah.
- 8:13      3 His intuition will be guided by the fear of Jehovah;
he will not judge by what his eyes see,
nor establish proof by what his ears hear.
- 2:4      4 He will judge the poor with righteousness,
and with equity arbitrate for the lowly in the land;
he will smite the earth with the rod of his mouth
and with the breath of his lips slay the wicked.
- 30:28    5 Righteousness will be as a band about his waist,
faithfulness a girdle round his loins.
- 49:9      6 Then shall the wolf dwell among lambs
and the leopard lie down with young goats;
calves and young lions “will feed” together,
and a youngster will lead them to pasture.
- 7 When a cow and bear browse,
their young will rest together;
the lion will eat straw like the ox.

- 8 A suckling infant will play near the adder's den,
and the toddler reach his hand
over the viper's nest.
- 65:25 9 There shall be no harm or injury done
throughout my holy mountain,
for the earth shall be filled
2:3 with the knowledge of Jehovah
as the oceans are overspread with waters.
- 10 In that day the sprig of Jesse,
who stands for an ensign to the peoples, 55:4-5 shall be sought by the nations,
and his rest shall be glorious.
- 10:21-22 11 In that day my Lord will again <sup>b</sup>raise<sup>b</sup> his hand
to reclaim the remnant of his people—
those who shall be left out of Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath,
and the islands of the sea.
- 49:22 12 He will raise the ensign to the nations
and assemble the exiled of Israel;
he will gather the scattered of Judah 43:5-6 from the four directions of the earth.
- 13 Ephraim's jealousy shall pass away
and the hostile ones of Judah be cut off; Ephraim will not envy Judah,
nor Judah resent Ephraim.
- 49:17 14 But they will swoop on the Philistine flank
toward the west,
and together plunder those to the east;
they will take Edom and Moab at hand's reach,
and the Ammonites will obey them.
- 8:7 15 Jehovah will dry up the tongue
of the Egyptian Sea <sup>c</sup>by his mighty wind;<sup>c</sup>
he will extend his hand over the River
and smite it into seven streams
to provide a way on foot.

27:12–13 <sup>16</sup> And there shall be a pathway out of Assyria for the remnant of his people who shall be left,
as there was for Israel
when it came up from the land of Egypt.

In that day you will say,
I praise you, O Jehovah.
Although you have been angry with me,
10:25 your anger is turned away
and you have consoled me.
28:5–6 <sup>2</sup> In<sup>a</sup> the God of my salvation I will trust without fear;
for Jehovah was my strength and <sup>b</sup>my song<sup>b</sup>
when he became my salvation.
58:11 <sup>3</sup> Then shall you rejoice in drawing water from the fountains of salvation.
<sup>4</sup> In that day you will say,
Give thanks to Jehovah; invoke his name.
Make known his deeds among the nations;
commemorate his exalted name.
25:1 <sup>5</sup> Sing in praise of Jehovah,
who has performed wonders;
let it be acknowledged throughout the earth!
8:18 <sup>6</sup> Shout and sing for joy, O inhabitants of Zion, for renowned among you is the Holy One of Israel.

An oracle concerning Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw in vision:
5:26 <sup>2</sup> Raise the ensign on a barren mountain;
sound the voice among them!
Beckon them with the hand to advance
into the precincts of the elite.
4:3 <sup>3</sup> I have charged my holy ones,
called out my valiant ones:

al 'allizê*.

- 4 Hark! A tumult on the mountains,
as of a vast multitude.
- 17:12 Hark! An uproar among kingdoms,
as of nations assembling:
Jehovah of Hosts is marshaling an army for war.
- 5 They come from a distant land beyond the horizon—
Jehovah and the instruments of his wrath—
- 10:23 to cause destruction throughout the earth.
- 6 Lament, for the Day of Jehovah is near;
it shall come as a violent blow from the Almighty.
- 7 Then shall every hand grow weak
and the hearts of all men melt.
- 2:19, 21 8 They shall be terrified, in throes of agony,
seized with trembling like a woman in labor.
Men will look at one another aghast,
their faces set aflame.
- 63:4 9 The Day of Jehovah shall come as a cruel outburst of anger and wrath
to make the earth a desolation,
that sinners may be annihilated from it.
- 50:3 10 The stars and constellations of the heavens will not shine.
When the sun rises, it shall be obscured;
nor will the moon give its light.
- 3:11 11 I have decreed calamity for the world,
punishment for the wicked;
I will put an end to the arrogance of insolent men
and humble the pride of tyrants.
- 29:20 12 I will make mankind scarcer than fine gold,
men more rare than gold of Ophir.
- 34:4 13 I will cause disturbance in the heavens
when the earth is jolted out of place
by the anger of Jehovah of Hosts
in the day of his blazing wrath.
- 9:19 14 Then, like a deer that is chased,
or a flock of sheep that no one rounds up,
each will return to his own people
and everyone flee to his homeland.

- 1:20 <sup>15</sup> Whoever is found shall be thrust through;
all who are caught shall fall by the sword.
- 21:2 <sup>16</sup> Their infants shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes,
their homes plundered, their wives ravished.
- 21:2 <sup>17</sup> See, I stir up against them the Medes,
who do not value silver, nor covet gold.
- 21:9 <sup>18</sup> Their bows shall tear apart the young.
They will show no mercy to the newborn;
their eye will not look with compassion on children.
- 1:9 <sup>19</sup> And Babylon, the most splendid of kingdoms,
the glory and pride of Chaldeans, shall be thrown down
as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
- <sup>20</sup> Never shall it be reinhabited;
it shall not be resettled through all generations.
Nomads will not pitch their tents there,
nor will shepherds rest their flocks in it.
- 32:13–14 <sup>21</sup> But wild animals will infest it,
and its buildings overflow with weasels;
birds of prey will find lodging there
and demonic creatures prance about in it.
- 34:13 <sup>22</sup> Jackals will cry out from its palaces, howling creatures from its amusement halls.
Her time draws near;
Babylon's<sup>b</sup> days shall not be prolonged.

14 Jehovah will have compassion on Jacob and once again choose Israel;
he will settle them in their own land,
5:17 and proselytes will adhere to them and join the house of Jacob.

49:22 <sup>2</sup> The nations will take them
and bring them to their own place.
And the house of Israel will possess them
as menservants and maidservants
6:1:5 in the land of Jehovah:
they will take captive their captors
and rule over their oppressors.

<sup>3</sup> In the day Jehovah gives you relief from grief and anguish and from the arduous servitude imposed on you, <sup>4</sup> you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon, and say,

How the tyrant has met his end
and tyranny<sup>a</sup> ceased!

9:4 <sup>5</sup> Jehovah has broken the staff of the wicked,
the rod of those who ruled—

10:6-7 <sup>6</sup> him who with unerring blows struck down the nations in anger,
who subdued peoples in his wrath
by relentless oppression.

<sup>7</sup> Now the whole earth is at rest and at peace;
there is jubilant celebration!

37:24 <sup>8</sup> The pine trees, too, rejoice over you,
as do the cedars of Lebanon:

10:15 Since you have been laid low,
no hewer has risen against us!

<sup>9</sup> Sheol below was in commotion because of you,
anticipating your arrival;
on your account it roused all the spirits
of the world's leaders,

24:21-22 causing all who had ruled nations
to rise up from their thrones.

<sup>10</sup> All alike were moved to say to you,
Even you have become powerless as we are!
You have become like us!

5:14 <sup>11</sup> Your glory has been cast down to Sheol, along with the music of your lyres.
Beneath you is a bed of maggots;
you are covered with worms.

54:15 <sup>12</sup> How you have fallen from the heavens,
O morning star, son of the dawn!

33:1 You who commanded the nations have been hewn down to earth!

<sup>13</sup> You said in your heart, I will rise in the heavens and set up my throne above the stars of God;

<sup>a</sup>4 Or, rage; so IQIsa<sup>a</sup>; LXX. MT rendering is unknown.

- I will seat myself
in the mount of assembly of the gods,
in the utmost heights or Zaphon.
- 37:23 <sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the altitude of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High!
- 38:18 <sup>15</sup> But you have been brought down to Sheol,
to the utmost depths of the Pit.
- 5:25 <sup>16</sup> Those who catch sight of you stare at you, wondering,
Is this the man who made the earth shake
and kingdoms quake,
- 37:26 <sup>17</sup> who turned the world into a wilderness,
demolishing its cities,
permitting not his captives to return home?
- <sup>18</sup> All rulers of nations lie in state,
each among his own kindred.
- 31:8-9 <sup>19</sup> But you are cast away unburied
like a repugnant fetus,
exposed like the slain disfigured by the sword,
whose mangled remains are thrown in a gravel pit.
- 26:14 <sup>20</sup> You shall not share burial with them,
for you have destroyed your land
and murdered your people.
May the brood of miscreants never more be mentioned!
- 30:31-32 <sup>21</sup> Prepare for the massacre of their sons,
in consequence of their fathers' deeds,
lest they rise up again
and take possession of the world,
and fill the face of the earth with cities.
- 10:13-14 <sup>22</sup> I will rise up against them, says Jehovah of Hosts.
I will cut off Babylon's name and remnant,
its offspring and descendants, says Jehovah.
- 13:19 <sup>23</sup> I will turn it into swamplands, a haunt for ravens;
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,
says Jehovah of Hosts.

As I foresaw it, so shall it happen;
as I planned it, so shall it be:

<sup>10:12</sup> <sup>25</sup> I will break Assyria in my own land, trample them underfoot on my mountains;
their yoke shall be taken from them,
<sup>10:24-27</sup> their burden removed from their shoulders.

this is the hand upraised over all nations.

who shall revoke?

now that the rod which struck you is broken.
From among the descendants of that snake
shall spring up a viper,
and his offspring shall be a fiery flying serpent.

<sup>40:11</sup> <sup>30</sup> The elect poor shall have pasture,
and the needy recline in safety.
But your descendants I will kill with famine,
<sup>14:22</sup> and your survivors shall be slain.

Utterly melt away, you Philistines!

and no place he has designated shall evade it.

Jehovah has founded Zion;

An oracle concerning Moab:

When in one night Ar is devastated,
Moab shall be silenced;
<sup>25:12</sup> when in one night Kir is razed,
Moab shall be destroyed.

and in Dibon to the hill shrines, to weep;
they will wail in Moab over Nebo and Medeba.
Every head shall be bald, every beard cut off.

- <sup>3</sup> They will wear sackcloth openly;
 on the housetops and in the streets
 they will altogether wail and give way to weeping.
- 10:30 <sup>4</sup> Heshbon will cry for help, as will Elealeh;
 their appeal shall be heard as far as Jahaz.
 They will sound the alarm
 to summon the armed men of Moab,
 but their spirit shall be broken.
- 21:15 <sup>5</sup> My heart will cry out for Moab;
 its fugitives will reach Zoar
 and as far as Eglath Shelishiah.
 In tears they will ascend the slopes of Luhith;
 on the road to Horonaim 47:11 they will raise the cry of catastrophe.
- <sup>6</sup> For the Waters of Nimrim shall be desolate;
 the grass shall dry up, vegetation disappear, 42:15 and no green foliage shall remain.
- <sup>7</sup> The surplus they have acquired,
 and their personal belongings,
 they will carry away
 over the Valley of the Willows.
- 13:11 <sup>8</sup> The cry of calamity
 shall encompass the land of Moab;
 the sound of it shall reach Eglaim
 and echo as far as Beer Elim.
- <sup>9</sup> Although the Waters of Dibon shall flow with blood,
 yet will I impose more than this upon Dibon:
 5:29 I will bring lions upon the fugitives of Moab
 and on those who remain in the land.

16

- Send couriers to those who rule in the earth,
 from Sela in the desert
 to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion.
- 47:2 <sup>2</sup> Like fluttering birds forced out of the nest,
 so are Moab's women at the fords of Arnon.
- 59:9-10 <sup>3</sup> Provide a solution, they say; judge our case!
 Overshadow us at high noon as though it were night!
 Shelter those dispossessed;
 betray not the refugees!

- 4 Let the exiles of Moab dwell with you;
 be a refuge to them from the aggressors!
- 14:3-4 When oppressors are no more
 and violence has ceased,
 when tyrants are destroyed from the earth,
 5 then, in loving kindness,
 22:22-23 shall a throne be set up in the abode of David,
 and in faithfulness a judge sit on it 9:7 who will maintain justice and expedite righteousness.
- 6 We have heard of the glories of Moab,
 of its excessive pride and its boasting,
 of its outbursts of false propaganda.
- 13:6 7 For this shall the Moabites be made to lament,
 and all have cause to bewail Moab:
 they shall groan at the ruin of Kir Hareseth
 in utter dejection.
- 24:7 8 For the vineyards of Heshbon shall wither;
 the ruling nations will smite Sibmah's vines.
 Its runner vines reached Jazer,
 trailing through the desert;
 23:7 its branches spread abroad across the sea.
- 9 Therefore I will mourn as Jazer mourns
 for the vines of Sibmah;
 I will water you with my tears,
 15:4 O Heshbon and Elealeh,
 when your shouts of cheer
 over the summer fruit and harvest are stilled.
- 10 The joyful festivity will be gone from the orchards;
 32:12 no shouts of delight shall sound in the vineyards.
 The wine treaders will tread no wine in the presses;
 the vintage shout I will bring to an end.
- 11 My breast will vibrate like a harp for Moab, 22:4 my inmost being for Kir Hareseth.
- 12 For when the Moabites weary themselves
 with petitioning on the hill shrines,
 and enter their sanctuaries to pray,
 it shall be to no avail.

<sup>13</sup> These things Jehovah spoke hitherto about Moab. <sup>14</sup> But now Jehovah has said, Within three years, as the term of a lease, Moab's glory shall become ignominy. For all its large populace there shall be very few left, and those of no account.

17

An oracle concerning Damascus:

Damascus shall cease to be a city
and become a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer shall lie forsaken
and become places for herds to recline,
where no one will disturb them.

<sup>3</sup> When Ephraim's defense comes to an end,
so shall the sovereignty of Damascus:
as with the glory of the children of Israel,
so shall it be with Aram's remnant,
says Jehovah of Hosts.

<sup>4</sup> In that day Jacob's glory shall wane,
and his fatness of body become leanness.

<sup>5</sup> After being like a harvest of ripe grain,
whose ears are reaped by the armful,
he will become like ears plucked
in the Valley of Rephaim

<sup>6</sup> when only the gleanings are left,
or when an olive tree is beaten,
having two or three berries in the topmost bough,
or four or five in its most fruitful branch,
says Jehovah, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> In that day men will have regard to their Maker, and their eyes look to the Holy One of Israel,

10:20

<sup>8</sup> and regard not the altars,
the works of their hands,
nor look to things their fingers have made—
the idols of prosperity and the shining images.

26:1, 4      <sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten your God, your salvation, and not remembered the Rock, your fortress.

Therefore, though you plant choice crops
and sow hybrid seed,

<sup>11</sup> and though you make them thrive
the day you plant them, causing them to sprout
the very morning you sow them,

32:10      yet shall the harvest vanish
in a day of diseases and incurable pain.

13:4      <sup>12</sup> Woe to the many peoples in an uproar, who rage like the raging of the seas—
tumultuous nations, in commotion
like the turbulence of mighty waters!

28:2      <sup>13</sup> Nations may roar like the roaring of great waters,
but when he rebukes them they will flee far away;
they will be driven before the wind 40:23–24      like chaff on the mountains,
or as whirling dust in a storm.

<sup>14</sup> At evening time shall be the catastrophe,
and before morning they shall be no more.

10:6      This is the lot of those who plunder us,
the fate of those who despoil us.

18      Woe to the land of buzzing wings
beyond the rivers of Cush, <sup>2</sup> which sends emissaries by sea,
in swift craft across the water!
They say, Go speedily, you messengers!
Go to a people perpetually on the move, 51:13      a nation dreaded far and wide,
a people continually infringing,
8:7      whose rivers have annexed their lands.

<sup>3</sup> All you who live in the world,
you inhabitants of the earth,
look to the ensign
when it is lifted up in the mountains;
27:12–13      heed the trumpet when sounded!

- <sup>4</sup> For thus said Jehovah to me:
 I will watch in silence over my dwelling place
 25:4-5 when the searing heat overtakes the reapers,<sup>a</sup>
 and when the rainclouds appear 17:5 amid the fever of reaping.
- <sup>5</sup> For before the harvest,
 when the time of flowering is past and the set blossoms are developing into young fruit,
 they will cut down the fruit-bearing twigs with knives 33:9 and remove the new branches by slashing.
- <sup>6</sup> All shall be left to the birds of prey
 of the mountains
 and to the beasts of the land:
 the birds of prey will feed on them all summer
 and the beasts of the land all winter.
- 60:12 <sup>7</sup> At that time shall tribute be brought to Jehovah of Hosts
 from a nation perpetually on the move,
 from a nation dreaded far and wide,
 a people continually infringing,
 37:11 whose rivers have annexed their lands,
 to the place of the name of Jehovah of Hosts: Mount Zion.

An oracle concerning Egypt:

- 13:6-7 When Jehovah enters Egypt riding on swift clouds,
 the idols of Egypt will rock at his presence and the Egyptians' hearts melt within them.
- <sup>2</sup> I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians;
 they will fight brother against brother 3:5 and neighbor against neighbor,
 city against city and state against state.
- <sup>3</sup> Egypt's spirit shall be drained from within;
 I will frustrate their plans,
 44:17 and they will resort to the idols and to spiritists,
 to mediums and witchcraft.

- 37:25      4 Then will I deliver the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel master;
                  a harsh ruler will subject them,
                  says the Lord, Jehovah of Hosts.
- 42:15      5 The waters of the lakes shall ebb away
                  as stream beds become desolate and dry.
- 15:6      6 The rivers shall turn foul,
                  and Egypt's waterways recede and dry up.
                  Reeds and rushes shall wither; <sup>7</sup> vegetation adjoining canals and estuaries,
                  and all things sown along irrigation channels,
                  shall shrivel and blow away and be no more.
- 50:2      8 Fishermen will deplore their lot
                  and anglers in canals bemoan themselves;
                  those who cast nets on water
                  will be in misery.
- 9 Manufacturers of combed linen
                  and weavers of fine fabrics will be dismayed.
- 10 The textile workers will know despair,
                  and all who work for wages "suffer distress."<sup>a</sup>
- 5:21      11 The ministers of Zoan are utter fools;
                  the wisest of Pharaoh's advisers give absurd counsel.
                  How can you say to Pharaoh,
                  We ourselves are as wise as the first rulers?
- 44:25      12 Where are your wise men indeed?
                  Let them please tell you, if they can discern it,
                  what Jehovah of Hosts has in mind for Egypt!
- 3:12      13 The ministers of Zoan have been foolish,
                  the officials of Noph deluded;
                  the heads of state have led Egypt astray.
- 29:9      14 Jehovah has permeated them
                  with a spirit of confusion;
                  they have misled Egypt in all that it does,
                  causing it to stagger like a drunkard into his vomit.
- 36:6      15 And there shall be nothing the Egyptians
                  can do about it,
                  neither head nor tail, palm top or reed.

<sup>16</sup> In that day the Egyptians will be as women, fearful and afraid at the brandishing hand Jehovah of Hosts wields over them. <sup>17</sup> The land of Judah shall become a source of terror to the Egyptians; all reminded of it shall dread what Jehovah of Hosts has in store for them.

<sup>18</sup> In that day five Hebrew-speaking cities in the land of Egypt will swear loyalty to Jehovah of Hosts. One shall be known as the City of Righteousness.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>19</sup> In that day there shall be an altar erected to Jehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt and a monument to Jehovah at its border. <sup>20</sup> They shall serve as a sign and testimony of Jehovah of Hosts in the land of Egypt: when they cry out to Jehovah because of the oppressors, he will send them a savior, who will take up their cause and deliver them.

<sup>21</sup> Jehovah will make himself known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians shall know Jehovah in that day. They will worship by sacrifice and offerings, and make vows to Jehovah and fulfill them. <sup>22</sup> Jehovah will smite Egypt, and by smiting heal it: they will turn back to Jehovah, and he will respond to their pleas and heal them.

<sup>23</sup> In that day there shall be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyrians shall come to Egypt and Egyptians go to Assyria, and the Egyptians shall labor with the Assyrians.

<sup>24</sup> In that day Israel shall be the third party to Egypt and to Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth. <sup>25</sup> Jehovah of Hosts will bless them, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance.

20 In the year the general who was sent by Sargon king of Assyria came to Ashdod and took it by combat, <sup>2</sup> Jehovah had spoken through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and ungird the sackcloth from your loins and remove the shoes from your feet. And he had done so, going naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup> Then Jehovah said, Just as my servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and portent against Egypt and Cush, <sup>4</sup> so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, both young and old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered—to Egypt’s shame. <sup>5</sup> Men shall be appalled and perplexed at Cush, their hope, and at Egypt, their boast. <sup>6</sup> In that day shall the inhabitants of this isle say, See what has become of those we looked up to, on whom we relied<sup>a</sup> for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How shall we ourselves escape?

21 An oracle concerning the Wilderness of the West:

Like tornadoes sweeping through the South,
they come from the steppes, a land of terror.

the traitor in the act of treachery,
the destroyer laying waste.

<sup>13:17</sup> Attack, O Elamites! Lay siege, you Medes!
All the sighing that Babylon<sup>a</sup> has caused
I will bring to an end.

throes of agony have seized me like a woman in labor.
I am tormented beyond giving heed;
I am too distraught to see.

the nightfall I longed for has become a horror to me:

they deck them with candlesticks.
They are eating and drinking . . .

Mobilize, you commanders! Oil the armor!

<sup>52:8</sup> <sup>6</sup> Because of this my Lord said to me,
Go and appoint a watchman
who will report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> Let him watch for chariots with teams of horses, riders on asses and riders on camels.
He must be most vigilant, fully alert.

I have been standing on the watchtower
day in and day out, my Lord;
night after night I have stood guard.

 And he gave the reply,
 13:1 She has fallen; Babylon has fallen.
 All her idol gods he has razed to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> <sup>c</sup>To you who know me, who are of my fold, 28:22 I have reported what I heard from Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel.

Men call to me from Seir,
 62:6 Watchman, what remains of the night?
 Watchman, how much of the night is left?

 Morning comes, though it is still night.
 6:10 If you would ascertain it,
 do so by repenting and coming back.

You wandering bands of Dedanites,
 22:8 who sojourn in the forests of Arabia,

<sup>14</sup> bring water to greet the thirsty;
 meet the fugitives with food,
 O inhabitants of the land of Tema.

 13:15, 18 from the bared sword, the drawn bow
 and the severity of war.

<sup>16</sup> On account of this, my Lord said to me, Within a year, as the term of a lease, Kedar's glory shall fully expire. <sup>17</sup> And the number of valiant archers remaining of the sons of Kedar shall be few. Jehovah, the God of Israel, has spoken it.

22 An oracle concerning the Arena of Spectacles:

Whatever is the matter with you,
 causing you all at once
 to climb onto the housetops?
 24:8 <sup>2</sup> You resounded with loud cheers—
 a tumultuous town, a city of revelry!

- 1:21 But your slain were not killed by the sword;
they did not die in battle!
- 3 Your chiefs, altogether in flight,
are captured without using the bow;
all of you left behind are caught easily 10:4 before you can get away.
- 4 Because of this I said,
Turn your attention from me,
though I weep bitterly;
hasten not to comfort me
51:19 at the ruin of the Daughter of my People.
- 5 For my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, has in store
a day of commotion and trampling and riot
in the Arena of Spectacles, 5:5 a day of battering down walls,
and of crying in distress, To the mountains!
- 21:2 6 When Elam takes up the quiver, and horses are harnessed to the chariots of Aram,<sup>a</sup>
and Kir uncovers the armor,
7 then shall your choice valleys fill with chariots,
21:7 and cavalry take up positions at your gateways.
- 8 And in the day Judea's defensive screen is removed,
you will look to the forest home as protection.
- 29:1-3 9 When you saw the city of David increasingly breached,
you conserved water in the Lower Reservoir.
- 10 You took a census of the buildings in Jerusalem,
tearing down buildings to fortify your wall.
- 7:3 11 You built cisterns between the walls
for the water from the Old Reservoir,
but you did not look to its Maker,
nor have regard for the One who designed it long ago.
- 20:1-2 12 In such a day my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts,
calls for weeping and lamentation,
for austerity and wearing sackcloth.

21:5 <sup>13</sup> Instead, there is mirth and merrymaking,
the killing of cattle and slaughter of sheep,
eating meat and drinking wine:
Let us dine and drink, for tomorrow we die!

<sup>14</sup> Jehovah of Hosts revealed this to my ears: Such wickedness cannot be forgiven you till you die, says my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts.

28:14 <sup>15</sup> Thus said my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts:
Go and see that steward, Shebna,
overseer of the palace.

2:12-13 <sup>16</sup> Say to him, What are you up to?
Who do you think you are,
that you have hewn yourself a tomb here,
like those who hew their sepulchres up high,
carving out graves for themselves in the rock?

<sup>17</sup> Jehovah will hurl you away
as an athlete hurls a missile;
he will make you soar like a dart.

27:8 <sup>18</sup> He will bind you tightly about and send you spinning like a top into an open country.

There shall you die,
and your inglorious conveyance there shall be a disgrace to your master's house.

22:25 <sup>19</sup> I will thrust you out of office;
you will be expelled from your post.

<sup>20</sup> In that day I will commission my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: <sup>21</sup> I will clothe him with your robe and bind your girdle on him; I will appoint him your jurisdiction. And he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup> I will invest him with the keys of the house of David: when he opens none shall shut, when he shuts none shall open. <sup>23</sup> I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place, and he will be a throne of glory to the house of his father. <sup>24</sup> Upon him shall be hung all the glory of his father's house: his descendants and posterity, including all the lesser vessels, from ordinary bowls to the most common containers.

<sup>25</sup> In that day, says Jehovah of Hosts, the nail that was fastened in a sure place shall be removed. It shall be dislodged and fall, and the burden hanging on it cut off. Jehovah has spoken it.

- 23 An oracle concerning Tyre:
 Sound your sirens, O merchant ships!
 For Tyre<sup>a</sup> is laid waste,
 2:16 stripped of warehouse and wharf.
 On their way from the land of Kittim shall they be informed of it.
- 41:1 <sup>2</sup> Be dumbfounded, you inhabitants of the isles,
 who were amply replenished
 by the traders of Sidon crossing the seas.
- 57:9 <sup>3</sup> The grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile,
 was her source of revenue upon the high seas
 when she became the merchant of nations.
- 47:9 <sup>4</sup> Be dismayed, O Sidon, because the Sea,
 the mighty haven of the Sea, has declared,
 I no longer labor and bear children!
 I no longer rear young men or raise virgins!
- <sup>5</sup> When the news of Tyre reaches Egypt,
 men will be in anguish at the report.
- 41:5 <sup>6</sup> Move on to Tarshish lamenting,
 you inhabitants of the isles.
- <sup>7</sup> Is this your festive city of ancient origin,
 whose feet led her to settle far-off lands?
- 24:2-4 <sup>8</sup> Who devised this stratagem against Tyre,
 the imperial city,
 whose traders were princes,
 whose merchants the world's celebrities?
- 40:23 <sup>9</sup> Jehovah of Hosts devised it,
 to make all glorying in excellence a profanity,
 and the world's celebrities an utter execration.
- <sup>10</sup> Overflow your land like the Nile, O Daughter of Tarshish: the harbor is no more.
- 14:26-27 <sup>11</sup> Jehovah will stretch out his hand over the Sea
 and distress kingdoms;
 he will give orders concerning the merchant city
 that her ports of haven be destroyed.

47:1-3 <sup>12</sup> He will say, You will frolic no more,
O ravished virgin, Daughter of Sidon.
Get up and cross over to Kittim,
though even there you will find no rest.

43:14 <sup>13</sup> So too with the land of the Chaldeans,
the people who founded Tyre<sup>b</sup> for shipping.
Was it not the Assyrians who set up observatories,
exposed its fortifications, and caused her downfall?

<sup>14</sup> Sound your sirens, O merchant ships;
your haven is desolate!

<sup>15</sup> In that day Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, the lifetime of a king. And at the end of seventy years, Tyre shall be as the harlot in the song:

<sup>16</sup> Take a lyre and go about the town,
O forgotten harlot.
Play skillfully; sing song after song,
that you may be remembered.

<sup>17</sup> For after seventy years, Jehovah will revisit Tyre. And she will return to her trade and hire herself out to all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup> Her merchandise and hire shall be consecrated to Jehovah; it shall not be hoarded or stored up.
Her commerce shall provide for those who dwell in the presence of Jehovah, that they may eat their fill and be elegantly clothed.

24 Lo! Jehovah will lay waste the earth and empty it;
he will disfigure its surface
and scatter its inhabitants.

6:11-12 <sup>2</sup> And it shall be with priest as with people, with master as with servant,
with mistress as with maid,
5:13-14 with seller as with buyer,
with borrower as with lender,
with debtor as with creditor—

10:13 <sup>3</sup> when the earth is sacked,
it shall be utterly ravaged.
Jehovah has given word concerning it.

- 34:1-2      4 The earth shall pine away,
the world miserably perish;
the elite of the earth shall be made wretched.
- 26:8-9      5 The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants:
they have transgressed the laws,
changed the ordinances,
set at nought the ancient covenant.
- 13:12      6 The curse devours the earth,
for those who dwell on it have incurred guilt;
because of it the population of the earth shall be diminished<sup>a</sup>
and little of mankind remain.
- 5:11-12      7 The new wine withers on languishing vines,
making all the lighthearted lament.
- 32:12-14    8 The rhythm of drums ceases,
the revelers' din stops;
the pulsating of lyres comes to an end.
- 32:12-14    9 Men no longer drink wine amid song;
liquor has turned bitter to drinkers.
- 32:12-14    10 The towns of disorder are broken up;
all houses are shuttered, that none may enter.
- 3:26      11 Outside is heard the clamor for wine,
though all joy has become gloom:
the earth's vitality is gone.
- 3:26      12 Havoc remains in the city;
the gates lie battered to ruin.
- 63:2-3      13 Then shall it happen in the earth among the nations
as when an olive tree is beaten,
or as grapes are gleaned when the vintage is ended.
- 42:10-12    14 Then will these lift up their voice and shout for joy,
and those from across the sea
exult at Jehovah's ingenuity.
- 42:10-12    15 Because of it they will give glory to Jehovah
in the regions of sunrise,
and in the isles of the sea
to the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel.

<sup>a</sup>6 So 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; MT burned.

- 30:29 <sup>16</sup> From a sector of the earth we hear singing:
 Glorious are the righteous!
 Whereas I thought, I am wasting away;
 I am weakening:
- 66:5 woe is me; the traitors have been treacherous,
 the turncoats have deceitfully betrayed!
- 26:21 <sup>17</sup> Terrors and pitfalls and traps await you,
 O inhabitants of the earth:
- <sup>18</sup> those who flee at the sound of terror
 shall fall into a pit,
 and those who get up from the pit
 shall be caught in a trap.
 For when the windows on high are opened,
 the earth shall shake to its foundations.
- 54:10 <sup>19</sup> The earth shall be crushed and rent;
 the earth shall break up and cave in;
 the earth shall convulse and lurch.
- 13:13 <sup>20</sup> The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard,
 sway back and forth like a shanty;
 its transgressions weigh it down,
 and when it collapses it shall rise no more.
- <sup>21</sup> In that day will Jehovah deal on high with the hosts on high
 and on earth with the rulers of the earth.
- 26:13-14 <sup>22</sup> They shall be herded together
 like prisoners to a dungeon
 and shut in confinement many days, as punishment.
- 13:10 <sup>23</sup> The moon will blush and the sun be put to shame,
 when Jehovah of Hosts manifests his reign
 in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and his glory in the presence of his elders.
- 52:7-8

25 In that day you will say,
 O Jehovah, you are my God;
 I will extol you by praising your name.
 For with perfect faithfulness
 you have performed wonders, things planned of old.

37:26

- 26:5           <sup>2</sup> You have made the city a heap of rubble, fortified towns a ruin—
                   heathen mansions shall no more form cities,
                   nor ever be rebuilt!
- <sup>3</sup> For this will powerful peoples revere you,
                   a community of tyrannous nations fear you.
- 14:30, 32   <sup>4</sup> You were a refuge for the poor,
                   a shelter for the needy in distress,
                   a covert from the downpour
                   and shade from the heat.
                   When the blasts of tyrants beat down
                   like torrents against a wall, <sup>5</sup> or like scorching heat in the desert,
                   you quelled the onslaughts of the heathen:
                   as burning heat by the shade of a cloud, 29:19–20   you subdued the power of tyrants.
- <sup>6</sup> In this mountain will Jehovah of Hosts prepare a sumptuous feast for all peoples,
                   a feast of leavened cakes, succulent and delectable,
                   of matured wines well refined.
- 44:22       <sup>7</sup> In this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
                   the shroud that shrouds all nations,
 9:2           <sup>8</sup> by abolishing Death forever.
                   My Lord Jehovah will wipe away
                   the tears from all faces;
 54:8–9     he will remove the reproach of his people
                   from throughout the earth.
                   Jehovah has spoken it.
- 12:1–2     <sup>9</sup> In that day you<sup>a</sup> will say, This is our God,
                   whom we expected would save us.
                   This is Jehovah for whom we have waited;
 33:2, 22   let us joyfully celebrate his salvation!
- <sup>10</sup> For in this mountain rests the hand of Jehovah, and under him Moab shall be trampled down
                   as straw is trampled in a dung pit.

<sup>a</sup>9 So 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; MT he.

- <sup>11</sup> For when he stretches his hands
into the midst of it,
as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim,
16:6-7 he will pull down his pride in the attempt.
- <sup>12</sup> Your highly walled fortifications
he will lay low by razing them to the ground, 15:1 even with the dust.

- 26 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah:
Our city is strong; salvation he has set up 60:18 as walls and barricades!
- <sup>2</sup> Open the gates to let in the nation righteous because it keeps faith.
- <sup>3</sup> Those whose minds are steadfast, O Jehovah, 31:5 you preserve in perfect peace,
for in you they are secure.
- <sup>4</sup> Ever trust in Jehovah, 44:8 for Jehovah, Yah, is an everlasting Rock.
- <sup>5</sup> He has put down the elite inhabitants of the exalted city
by casting it to the ground, 47:1 laying it even with the dust.
- <sup>6</sup> It is trodden underfoot by the feet of the poor,
by the footsteps of those impoverished.
- <sup>7</sup> The path of the righteous is straight;
2:3 you pave an undeviating course for the upright.
- <sup>8</sup> In the very passage of your ordinances
we anticipate you, O Jehovah;
52:6 the soul's desire is to contemplate your name.
- <sup>9</sup> My soul yearns for you in the night;
at daybreak my spirit within me seeks after you.
For when your ordinances are on the earth,
the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
- <sup>10</sup> Though favor be shown the wicked, 48:1, 18 they will not learn righteousness;
in a land of uprightness they remain perverse
and see not the glory of Jehovah.

- 9:17-18      <sup>11</sup> O Jehovah, your hand is lifted up,
but they perceive it not.
Let them perceive with dismay
your zeal for your people 33:14      when the fire prepared for your enemies consumes them.
- 57:1-2      <sup>12</sup> O Jehovah, you bring about our peace;
even all that we have accomplished
you have done for us.
- 34:12      <sup>13</sup> O Jehovah, our God, lords other than you have ruled over us,
but you alone we recall by name.
- 9:3      <sup>14</sup> They are dead, to live no more,
spirits who will not rise up;
you appoint them to destruction,
wiping out all recollection of them.
- 9:3      <sup>15</sup> You have enlarged the nation, O Jehovah,
and by enlarging it gained glory for yourself;
you have withdrawn all borders in the earth.
- 64:5-7      <sup>16</sup> O Jehovah, in their distress they remembered you;
they poured out silent prayers
when your chastisements were upon them.
- 64:1-2      <sup>17</sup> As a woman about to give birth cries out from her pangs during labor,
so were we at your presence, O Jehovah.
- 37:3      <sup>18</sup> We were with child; we have been in labor,
but have brought forth only wind.
We have not wrought salvation in the earth,
that the inhabitants of the world might not fall.<sup>a</sup>
- 52:1-2      <sup>19</sup> Yet shall your dead live when their bodies<sup>b</sup> arise.
You will say to them,
Awake, and sing for joy,
you who abide in the dust:
your dew is the dew of sunrise!
For the earth shall cast up its dead.

- 20 Come, O my people, enter your chambers
and shut the doors behind you;
hide yourselves a little while 13:9 until the wrath is past.
- 21 For now will Jehovah come out of his dwelling place
to punish the inhabitants of the earth 59:17-19 for their iniquities;
the earth will uncover the blood shed upon it and no more conceal its slain.

27 In that day will Jehovah,
with his great and powerful sword,
punish severely<sup>a</sup> Leviathan,
the evasive maritime serpent,
Leviathan, that devious sea monster,
66:16 when he slays the dragons of the Sea.

- 2 In that day, sing of the earth<sup>b</sup>
as of a delightful vineyard
5:1 3 of which I, Jehovah, am keeper.
I water it constantly, watch over it night and day,
lest anything be amiss.
- 12:1 4 I have no more anger toward her.
Should briars and thorns come up,
I will ruthlessly attack them
and altogether set them ablaze.
- 25:4 5 But should they take hold of me for a refuge
and make peace with me,
they shall be reconciled to me.
- 4:2 6 For in days to come, when Jacob takes root and Israel bursts into blossom,
the face of the earth shall fill with fruit.
- 7 Was he smitten as were his smiters?
Or was he slain as were they who slew him?
- 30:30 8 You have dealt with them
by utterly banishing them, O Jehovah.
By his fierce blasts they were flung away
in the day of the burning east wind.

40:2 <sup>9</sup> But by this shall Jacob's iniquity be expiated, as a result of this his sins removed:
 when he makes like crushed chalkstone
 all altar stones,
 2:8 leaving no idols of prosperity
 and shining images standing.
 17:9 <sup>10</sup> Because of them the fortified cities lie forlorn, deserted habitations, forsaken like a wilderness;

 stripping bare the young branches of trees.
 1:3 <sup>11</sup> A harvest of twigs dries, broken off by women who come to light their fires with them.
 They are not a discerning people.
 Therefore their Maker shows them no mercy;
 he who formed them favors them not.

<sup>12</sup> In that day Jehovah will thresh out his harvest from the torrent of the River to the streams of Egypt. But you shall be gleaned one by one, O children of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> In that day a loud trumpet shall sound, and they who were lost in the land of Assyria and they who were outcasts in the land of Egypt shall come and bow down to Jehovah in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the garlands of glory of the drunkards of Ephraim!
 Their crowning splendor has become as fading wreaths 29:9 on the heads of "the opulent" overcome with wine.

 as a ravaging hailstorm sweeping down, 8:7-8 or like an inundating deluge of mighty waters,
 he will hurl them to the ground by his hand.

 63:6 shall be trodden underfoot.

<sup>4</sup> And the fading wreaths, the crowns of glory
 on the heads of "the opulent,"
 shall be like the first-ripe fruit 18:5 before summer harvest:

- <sup>5</sup> In that day shall Jehovah of Hosts
be as a crown of beauty and wreath of glory
to the remnant of his people:
- 10:21-22 <sup>6</sup> a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment,
a source of strength
to those who repulse the attack at the gates.
- 56:10-12 <sup>7</sup> These too have indulged in wine
and are giddy with strong drink:
priests and prophets have gone astray through liquor.
They are intoxicated with wine
and stagger because of strong drink;
they err as seers, they blunder in their decisions.
- 19:14 <sup>8</sup> For all tables are filled with vomit;

- <sup>9</sup> Whom shall he give instruction?
Whom shall he enlighten with revelation?
Weanlings weaned from milk,
those just taken from the breast?
- 53:1 <sup>10</sup> For it is but line upon line, line upon line,
precept upon precept, precept upon precept,

- 29:13 <sup>11</sup> Therefore, by incomprehensible speech and a strange tongue
must he speak to these people,
- 33:19 <sup>12</sup> to whom he said, This is rest; let the weary rest!
This is a respite! But they would not listen.
- 50:4 <sup>13</sup> So to them the word of Jehovah remained:
Line upon line, line upon line,
precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
a trifle here, a trifle there, that,
persisting, they might lapse into stumbling
and break themselves,
become ensnared and be taken captive.
- 8:14-15 <sup>14</sup> Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, you scoffers

- <sup>16</sup> Therefore, thus says my Lord Jehovah:
I lay in Zion a stone, a keystone,
a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation.
They who believe it will not do rashly.
- 1:27      <sup>17</sup> I will make justice the measure,
righteousness the weight;
32:19*      a hail shall sweep away your false refuge

- <sup>18</sup> Your covenant with Death shall prove void,<sup>b</sup> your understanding with Sheol have no effect:

you shall be overrun by it.
- 21:1      <sup>19</sup> As often as it sweeps through,

morning after morning it shall sweep through,
by day and by night it shall seize you;
8:9      it shall cause terror merely to hear word of it.
- <sup>20</sup> Then shall come to pass the proverb:
The couch is too short to stretch out on,
the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in.
- 33:10–13      <sup>21</sup> For Jehovah will rise up
as he did on Mount Perazim, and be stirred to anger, as in the Valley of Gibeon—
to perform his act, his unwonted act, 10:12      and do his work, his bizarre work.
- <sup>22</sup> Now therefore scoff not,
lest your bonds grow severe,
13:5      for I have heard utter destruction decreed by my Lord, Jehovah of Hosts, upon the whole earth.

- <sup>23</sup> Give heed, and hear my voice!
 50:10 Be attentive, and listen to what I say!
<sup>24</sup> Will the plowman be forever plowing to sow seed, diskings and harrowing the same ground?
<sup>25</sup> When he has smoothed its surface,

 Does he not demarcate wheat from barley
 and plant buckwheat in its own plot?
 28:9 <sup>26</sup> His God instructs him, directing him in the proper procedure.
<sup>27</sup> Fennel is not threshed with a sharp-toothed sledge, nor is a cartwheel rolled over cumin:
 fennel is beaten out with a stick
 and cumin with a rod.
<sup>28</sup> Domestic grain is ground;
 59:8 one does not go on endlessly threshing it.
 It cannot be ground

- 29 Woe to Ariel—
 Ariel, the city where David lodged!
 Though you add year to year,
 and the feasts recur in succession,

 64:10-12 there shall be mourning and sorrow
 when she becomes as my <sup>a</sup>altar hearth.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup> I will encamp against you round about,
 and beleague you with assault posts,
 and erect siege installations against you.
 26:5 <sup>4</sup> And when you have been laid low,
 you will speak from the ground,
 your words uttering out of the dust:
 your voice from the ground

 29:18 your sayings shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Suddenly, in an instant,
 your crowds of evildoers<sup>b</sup> shall become as fine dust, 54:15 your violent mobs like flying chaff.

6 She shall be chastened by Jehovah of Hosts
 with thunderous quakings, 66:15 resounding booms, tempestuous blasts
 and conflagrations of devouring flame.

7 And the nations amassed to fight against Ariel,
 all who congregate at her stronghold
 to distress her,
 17:12-14 shall be as a dream seen in the night:

8 like a hungry man who dreams he eats
 but awakens famished,
 or like a thirsty man who dreams he drinks
 but wakes up faint and craving.
 So shall be all the nations
 31:4 that amass to fight against Mount Zion.

9 Procrastinate, and become bewildered;
 preoccupy yourselves, until you cry for help.
 Be drunk, but not with wine;
 51:21 stagger, but not from strong drink.

10 Jehovah has poured out on you
 a spirit of deep sleep:
 he has shut your eyes, the prophets;
 28:1 he has covered your heads, the seers.

<sup>11</sup> For you the sum of vision has become as the words of a sealed book that they give to one who is learned, saying, Please read this, and he answers, I cannot; it is sealed. <sup>12</sup> Or if they give it to one who is unlearned, saying, Please read this, he answers, I am unlearned.

13 But my Lord says, Because these people approach me with the mouth
 and pay me homage with their lips,
 while their heart remains far from me—58:1-2 their piety toward me consisting of commandments of men learned by rote—

- 25:1      <sup>14</sup> therefore it is that I shall again astound these people with wonder upon wonder,
               rendering void the knowledge of their sages
               and the intelligence of their wise men insignificant.
- 32:7      <sup>15</sup> Woe to those who contrive
               to hide their schemes from Jehovah!
               They work in the dark, thinking,
               Who will see us? Who will know?
- 45:9      <sup>16</sup> What a contradiction you are!
               Shall the potter be regarded as the clay?
               Shall what is made say of its maker,
               He did not make me,
               or a work of its designer, He doesn't understand?
- 32:15     <sup>17</sup> In a very little while, shall not Lebanon again become a fruitful land,
               and lands now fruitful be considered backwoods?
- 42:7      <sup>18</sup> In that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book and the eyes of the blind see out of gross darkness.
- 61:1-3    <sup>19</sup> The lowly shall obtain an increase of joy in Jehovah,
               and the poorest of men rejoice
               in the Holy One of Israel.
- 59:15     <sup>20</sup> For tyrants shall come to nought and scorners cease;
               all who watch for iniquity shall be cut off—<sup>21</sup> those who at a word adjudge a man to be guilty, who ensnare the defender at court,
               who for nothing turn away him who is in the right.
- <sup>22</sup> Therefore thus says Jehovah,
               who redeemed Abraham, to the house of Jacob:
               No longer shall Jacob be dismayed;
               his face shall pale no more.
- 19:25     <sup>23</sup> For when he sees among him his children,
               the work of my hands, hallowing my name,
               devoted to the Holy One of Jacob,
               reverencing the God of Israel,
- 28:9      <sup>24</sup> then will the erring in spirit gain understanding and they who murmured accept instruction.

- 30 Woe to you, rebellious sons, says Jehovah,
for drawing up plans, but not by me,
for making alliances without my approval,
only adding sin to sin!
- 31:1 <sup>2</sup> They are bent on going down to Egypt—
but have not inquired at my mouth—
on seeking protection in Pharaoh's forces, 36:6 on taking shelter in Egypt's shadow.
- <sup>3</sup> But Pharaoh's protection shall turn to your shame,
shelter in Egypt's shadow to embarrassment.
- 19:13 <sup>4</sup> For all their officials at Zoan,
and their envoys' travels to Hanes, <sup>5</sup> they shall be utterly disgusted
with a people who will avail them nothing;
they shall be of no help or benefit, 20:3-4 but a humiliation and disgrace.
- <sup>6</sup> An oracle concerning the Beasts of Negeb:
Through a land of hardship and vicissitudes,
of lions and the <sup>a</sup>roaring<sup>a</sup> king of beasts,
of vipers and the fiery flying serpent, 15:7 they carry their wealth
on the backs of young asses,
their riches on the humps of camels,
to a people who cannot profit them.
- <sup>7</sup> Egypt's help shall be futile and vain;
20:5 therefore I refer to her as an idle boast.
- <sup>8</sup> Go now, write on tablets concerning them;
record it in a book for the end-time, 29:11, 18 as a testimony forever.
- <sup>9</sup> They are a rebellious people, sons who break faith,
children unwilling to obey the law of Jehovah, <sup>10</sup> who say to the seers, See not!
and to those with visions, 29:10 Predict not what is right for us:
flatter us; foresee a farce!

- 3:8           <sup>11</sup> Get out of the way; move aside, off the path!
 Cease confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!
- 28:14       <sup>12</sup> Therefore, thus says the Holy One of Israel:
 Because you have rejected this word,
 and rely on manipulation and double dealing,
 and on them are dependent,
- 2:15       <sup>13</sup> this iniquity will be to you as a perilous breach exposed in a high wall
 which suddenly and unexpectedly collapses.
- 22:9–11   <sup>14</sup> It shall shatter with a crash
 like an earthenware vessel ruthlessly smashed,
 among whose fragments shall not be found a shard
 with which to scoop lit embers from a fireplace, or dip water from a tank.
- 7:4       <sup>15</sup> For thus says my Lord Jehovah,
 the Holy One of Israel:
 By a calm response triumph;
 with quiet confidence gain the victory.
 But you would have none of it.
- 5:26       <sup>16</sup> For your thought, Not so; we will flee on horses!
 Therefore shall you flee indeed.
 We will ride on swift mounts!
 Therefore shall your pursuers be swifter.
- 18:3       <sup>17</sup> You will flee by the thousand at the threat of one,
by thousands at the threat of five,
 till you are left as a flagstaff on a mountaintop,
 an ensign on a hill.
- 33:2       <sup>18</sup> Then will Jehovah delay his coming,
 that he may favor you;
 out of mercy toward you he will remain aloof.
 For Jehovah is the God of justice;
 blessed are all who wait for him.
- 65:24      <sup>19</sup> O people of Zion, O inhabitants of Jerusalem,
 you shall have no cause to weep.
 He will graciously respond at the cry of your voice;
 he will answer you as soon as he hears it.

- 20 Though my Lord give you the bread of adversity
and the water of affliction, 33:17 yet shall your Teacher remain hidden no longer,
but your eyes shall see the Master.
- 21 Your ears shall hear words from behind you 32:3 saying, This is the way; walk in it!
should you turn left or right.
- 22 You will discard as unclean
your graven idols plated with silver,
your cast idols gilded in gold;
31:7 you will eject them
as a menstruous woman her impurity
and say, Away with you!
- 23 Then will he water with rain 55:10 the seed you sow in the ground, that the land's increase of food
may be rich and abundant.
In that day your cattle shall graze
32:20 in ample pasturelands,
24 and the oxen and asses that till the soil
eat grain silage winnowed with shovel and fork.
- 25 On all mountain heights and prominent hills
shall appear streams of running water, 34:2-6 on the day of the great slaughter,
when the towers fall.
- 26 The light of the moon
shall be as the light of the sun, 60:19-20 and the light of the sun increase sevenfold;
as the light of seven days shall it be,
in the day Jehovah binds up
the fracture of his people 58:8 and heals their open wound.
- 27 Behold, Jehovah Omnipotent<sup>b</sup> coming from afar!
His wrath is kindled, heavy is his grievance;
his lips flow with indignation,
66:15 his tongue is like a devouring fire.

<sup>b</sup>27 Literally, the name of Jehovah.

- 8:8           28 His breath is like a raging torrent that severs at the neck.
                   He comes to sift the nations
                   in the sieve of falsehood;
 36:16–18   with an erring bridle on their jaws
                   he will try the peoples.
- 51:11       29 But for you there shall be singing,
                   as on the night when a festival commences,
                   and rejoicing of heart, as when men march with flutes [and drums and lyres]<sup>c</sup> 27:13       on their way to the mountain of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel.
- 51:9       30 Jehovah will cause his voice to resound,
                   and make visible his arm descending in furious rage,
                   with flashes of devouring fire,
                   explosive discharges and pounding hail.
- 31:9       31 At the voice of Jehovah
                   the Assyrians will be terror-stricken,
                   they who used to strike with the rod.
- 14:25      32 At every sweep of the staff of authority,
                   when Jehovah lowers it upon them,
                   they will be fought in mortal combat.
- 66:24     33 For Tophet has been prepared of old,
                   a hearth indeed, made ready for rulers;
                   broad and deep is its fire pit and ample its pyre;
                   Jehovah's breath burns within it like a river of lava.

31       Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help,
                   relying on horses,
                   putting their trust in immense numbers 43:17     of chariots and vast forces of horsemen, but who do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
                   nor inquire of Jehovah!

<sup>c</sup>29 Terms brought up from verse 32, where they follow they shall be fought, a probable textual dislocation.

- <sup>2</sup> Yet he too is shrewd 47:11 and will bring disaster upon them,
 and not retract his words.
 He will rise up against the brood of miscreants 30:1 and allies of evildoers.
- <sup>3</sup> The Egyptians are human, not divine;
 their horses are flesh, not spirit:
 14:26 when Jehovah stretches out his hand,
 those who help them will stumble
 and those helped will fall;
 20:6 both shall come to an end together.
- <sup>4</sup> For thus said Jehovah to me:
 As a lion or a young lion growls over the prey
 when the shepherds muster in full force against him, 13:2, 4 and is not dismayed at the sound of their voice
 nor daunted by their numbers,
 so shall Jehovah of Hosts be when he descends 64:1-2 to wage war upon Mount Zion and upon its heights.
- <sup>5</sup> As birds hover over [the nest],<sup>a</sup>
 so will Jehovah of Hosts guard Jerusalem; 37:35 by protecting it he will deliver it,
 by passing over it, preserve it.
- <sup>6</sup> Return to him from whom you have contrived to go far astray, O children of Israel. <sup>7</sup> For in that day every one of you will despise your idolatrous silver and gold by which your hands have incurred guilt.
- <sup>8</sup> And Assyria shall fall by a sword not of man;
 49:2 a sword not of mortals shall devour them:
 before that sword they shall waste away
 and their young men melt;
- <sup>9</sup> their captain<sup>b</sup> shall expire in terror 11:10 and their officers shrink from the ensign, says Jehovah, whose fire is in Zion,
 whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

<sup>b</sup>9 Literally, rock, a probable military term.

- 32 A king shall reign in righteousness
and rulers rule with justice.
- 38:2-6 <sup>2</sup> And a man shall become as a shelter
from the wind or refuge from the storm,
like brooks of water in a desert place,
or the shade of a large rock in arid country.
- 30:20-21 <sup>3</sup> The eyes of those who see shall not be shut,
and the ears of those who hear shall listen.
- 35:5-6 <sup>4</sup> The minds of the rash shall learn understanding,
and the tongues of the stammerers master eloquence.
- <sup>5</sup> The godless shall no longer be regarded as noble nor rogues considered respectable.
- 29:13 <sup>6</sup> For the godless utter blasphemy;
their heart ponders impiety:
how to practice hypocrisy and preach
perverse things concerning Jehovah,
leaving the hungry soul empty,
depriving the thirsty soul of drink.
- 59:3-4 <sup>7</sup> And rogues scheme by malevolent means and insidious devices to ruin the poor,
and with false slogans and accusations
to denounce the needy.
- 56:2 <sup>8</sup> But the noble are of noble intent,
and stand up for what is virtuous.
- 3:16 <sup>9</sup> Up, and listen to my voice, O complacent women;
you careless daughters, hear my words!
- 17:10-11 <sup>10</sup> In little more than a year
you shall be in anguish, O carefree ones,
for when the harvest is over,
the produce shall fail to arrive.
- 22:12 <sup>11</sup> Be alarmed, you complacent women;
be perturbed, O careless daughters!
Strip yourselves bare;
put sackcloth around your waists.
- <sup>12</sup> Beat your breasts for the choice fields
and flourishing vines,

- 5:6           <sup>13</sup> for my people's land
                   shall be overgrown with briars and thorns.
                   Mourn for all the amusement houses
                   in the city of entertainment, 13:22       <sup>14</sup> for the palaces shall lie abandoned,
                   the clamorous towns deserted.
                   High rises and panoramic resorts shall become haunts for ever after, 34:13-14    the playground of wild animals,
                   a browsing place for flocks.
- 13:19       <sup>19<sup>a</sup></sup> For by a hail shall forests be felled,
                   cities utterly leveled.
- 44:3       <sup>15</sup> Then<sup>b</sup> shall a Spirit from on high be poured out on us;
                   the desert shall become productive land
                   and lands now productive
                   be reckoned as brushwood.
- 32:1       <sup>16</sup> So shall justice inhabit the desert,
                   and righteousness abide in the farmland.
- <sup>17</sup> And the effect of justice shall be peace,
                   and the result of righteousness
                   an assured calm forever.
- 54:14       <sup>18</sup> My people shall dwell in peaceful settlements,
                   in safe neighborhoods, in comfortable dwellings.
- <sup>20</sup> Blessed are you, who shall then sow by all waters,
                   letting oxen and asses range free.

33 Woe to you, despoiler,
           who yourself was not despoiled;
           O treacherous one,
 21:2       with whom none have been treacherous:
           when you have done with devastating,
           you shall be devastated;
           when you are through betraying, 14:4       they shall betray you!

- 25:9           <sup>2</sup> O Jehovah, be favorable toward us;
                  we have waited for you.
                  Be our<sup>a</sup> strength of arm from morning to morning,
                  our salvation in troubled times.
- 28:21           <sup>3</sup> The peoples fled from your thunderous voice;
                  at your uprising the nations scattered.
- <sup>4</sup> Their spoil was harvested
                  in the manner of caterpillars;
                  like insatiable locusts they rushed upon it.
- 40:22           <sup>5</sup> But Jehovah is supreme, for he dwells on high;
                  with justice and righteousness he will replenish Zion.
- 11:2            <sup>6</sup> Your faithfulness in time of trial
                  shall prove to be a strength,
                  your wisdom and knowledge your salvation;
                  your fear of Jehovah shall be your riches.
- 48:18, 22       <sup>7</sup> See, their stalwarts sob in public;
                  the champions of peace weep bitterly.
- <sup>8</sup> The highways are desolate, travel is at an end.
                  The treaties have been violated,
                  their signatories<sup>b</sup> held in contempt;
                  man is disregarded.
- 1:7             <sup>9</sup> The Land lies withered and forlorn, Lebanon wilts shamefully;
                  Sharon has been turned into a dry waste,
                  Bashan and Carmel are denuded.
- 3:13            <sup>10</sup> Now will I arise, says Jehovah;
                  I will now become prominent,
                  now gain preeminence.
- 5:24            <sup>11</sup> You who conceived chaff and brought forth stubble,
                  the fire of your own breath devours you!
- <sup>12</sup> Whole nations have been burned like lime,
                  mown down like thorns and set ablaze.
- 9:18–19        <sup>13</sup> Take heed what I have done, you who are far off;
                  you who are near, be apprised of my might!

- 14 The sinners in Zion are struck with fear;
the godless are in the grip of trembling;
29:6 Who among us can live through the devouring fire?
Who among us can abide eternal burning?
- 15 They who conduct themselves righteously
and are honest in word, 32:8 who disdain extortion
and stay their hand from taking bribes,
who stop their ears at the mention of murder,
who shut their eyes at the sight of wickedness.
58:14
- 16 They shall dwell on high;
the impregnable cliffs are their fortress.
Bread is provided them, their water is sure.
- 24:23
- 17 Your eyes shall behold the King in his glory
and view the expanse of the earth.
- 18 You shall recount in your mind the terror:
Where are those who conducted the census?
14:24–25 Where are those who levied the tax?
Where are the ones who appraised the towers?
- 19 The insolent people are not to be seen,
a nation of incomprehensible speech, 28:11 whose babbling tongue was unintelligible.
- 20 Behold Zion, the city of our solemn assemblies;
let your eyes rest upon Jerusalem, 54:13–14 the abode of peace—an immovable tent,
whose stakes shall never be uprooted,
nor any of its cords severed.
- 24<sup>c</sup> None who reside there shall say, I am ill;
the people who inhabit it 43:25 shall be forgiven their iniquity.

 10 Night and day it shall not be quenched;
 its smoke shall ascend forever.
 It shall remain a wasteland
 from generation to generation;
 through endless ages none shall traverse it.
- 11 But hawks and falcons shall possess it,
 and owls and ravens inhabit it.
 14:23 It shall be surveyed with muddled measure and chaotic weight.
- 12 Shall they summon its nobles when it is no kingdom, 26:13–14 when all its lords no longer exist?
- 13 For thorns shall overgrow its palaces,
 thistles and briars its strongholds;
 32:14 it shall become the haunt of howling creatures,
 a reserve<sup>c</sup> for birds of prey.
- 14 Prairie wolves shall greet jackals,
 13:21–22 and wild goats call to one another.
 There too shall the night owl find repose
 and discover for herself a resting place.
- 15 There shall the hawk owl nest and lay eggs,
 hatch them and brood over her young.
 There too shall kites come together,
 each one accompanying her mate.
- 29:18 16 Search, and read it in the book of Jehovah:

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria marched against all the fortified cities of Judea and seized them. <sup>2</sup> And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. And he took up a position by the aqueduct of the Upper Reservoir, on the road to the Laundry Plaza. <sup>3</sup> And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, overseer of the palace, Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the record keeper, went out to him.

<sup>4</sup> And Rabshakeh said to them, Please tell Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what grounds do you behave with such confidence? <sup>5</sup> Do you suppose that in war mere words are sufficient tactics or show of strength? In whom have you put your trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup> It is clear you depend on the support of Egypt, that splintered reed which enters and pierces the palm of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him! <sup>7</sup> But if you tell me, We rely on Jehovah our God, is he not the one whose shrines and altars Hezekiah abolished, telling Judea and Jerusalem to worship only at this altar? <sup>8</sup> Come now, wager with my lord the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them. <sup>9</sup> How then shall you repulse even one of the least of my lord's servants, depending as you do on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? <sup>10</sup> Moreover, could I have marched against this land and destroyed it without Jehovah? For Jehovah told me to come against this land and destroy it.

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, please speak to your servants in Aramaic, which we understand. Do not speak to us in Judean in the ears of the people who are on the wall.

<sup>12</sup> But Rabshakeh replied, Did my lord send me to say these things to you and to your lord and not to the men sitting on the wall, who with you are to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?

<sup>13</sup> Then Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in Judean, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> Thus says the king: Do not let Hezekiah delude you! He cannot deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah by saying, Jehovah will surely save us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

<sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah! Thus says the king of Assyria: Make peace with me by coming out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and his own fig tree and drink water from his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come back and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and wine, a land of grain fields and vineyards. <sup>18</sup> Beware, lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, Jehovah will save us. Were any gods of the nations able to save their lands out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they deliver Samaria out of my hand? <sup>20</sup> Who of all the gods of those countries saved his land from my hand, that Jehovah should save Jerusalem from my hand?

<sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, overseer of the palace, Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the record keeper, went to Hezekiah with their clothes rent and reported to him the things Rabshakeh had said.

<sup>5</sup> And when King Hezekiah's servants came to Isaiah, <sup>3</sup> they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah: This is a woeful day, a day of reproof and disgrace. Children have reached the point of birth, but there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>4</sup> It may be that Jehovah your God has heard the words of Rabshakeh, whom his lord the king of Assyria has sent to scorn the living God, and will rebuke him for the things Jehovah your God has heard, were you to offer up prayer on behalf of the remnant that is left.

<sup>6</sup> And Isaiah said to them, Tell your lord, Thus says Jehovah: Be not afraid because of the words with which you have heard the king of Assyria's subordinates ridicule me. <sup>7</sup> See, I will give him a notion to return home upon hearing a rumor, and will cause him to fall by a sword in his own land.

<sup>9</sup> Now Sennacherib<sup>b</sup> received a report that Tirhakah king of Cush had set out to fight against him. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, telling them, <sup>10</sup> Speak thus to Hezekiah king of Judah: Let not your God in whom you trust delude you into thinking that Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> You yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done, annexing all lands. Shall you then escape? <sup>12</sup> Did the gods of the nations my fathers destroyed deliver them? Did they deliver Gozan and Haran, Rezeph and the Edenites in Tel Assar? <sup>13</sup> Where are the kings of Hamath and Arpad and the kings of the cities of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?

<sup>14</sup> And Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of Jehovah and unrolled it before Jehovah. <sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed to Jehovah and said, <sup>16</sup> O Jehovah of Hosts, God of Israel, who sits enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. It is you who made the heavens and the earth . . .

<sup>17</sup> O Jehovah, give ear and hear; O Jehovah, open your eyes and see. Listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God.

<sup>c</sup>18 Hebrew hā'ārāšot, the lands, emended to haggōyīm; compare 2 Kings 19:17.

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is what Jehovah has spoken against him:

- 62:11      The Virgin Daughter of Zion holds you in contempt;
                 she laughs you to scorn.
                 The Daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.
- 37:6      <sup>23</sup> Whom have you mocked and ridiculed?
                 Against whom have you raised your voice,
                 lifting your eyes to high heaven?
                 Against the Holy One of Israel!
- <sup>24</sup> By your servants you have blasphemed my Lord.
                 You thought, On account of my vast chariotry
- 10:32-34    I have conquered the highest mountains,
                 the farthest reaches of Lebanon.
                 I have felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses.
                 I have reached its loftiest summit, its finest forest.
- <sup>25</sup> I have dug wells and drunk of foreign<sup>d</sup> waters.
                 With the soles of my feet
- 20:4      I have dried up all Egypt's rivers!
- <sup>26</sup> Have you not heard
                 how I ordained this thing long ago, 25:1-2      how in days of old I planned it?
                 Now I have brought it to pass.
                 You were destined to demolish fortified cities,
                 turning them into heaps of rubble,
- <sup>27</sup> while their timorous inhabitants 42:17      shrank away in confusion, becoming as wild grass, transiently green,
                 or like weeds on a roof
5:24      <sup>e</sup>that scorch<sup>e</sup> before they grow up.
- <sup>28</sup> But I know where you dwell,
                 and your comings and goings,
5:30      and how stirred up you are against me.

- 10:12      29 And because of your snortings
and bellowings against me,
which have mounted up to my ears,
I will put my ring in your nose
and my bit in your mouth 37:34 and turn you back by the way you came.
- 7:21-22    30 But to you this shall be a sign:
This year eat what grows wild,
and the following year what springs up of itself.
But in the third year sow and harvest,
plant vineyards and eat their fruit:
- 27:6      31 the remnant of the house of Judah that survives shall once more take root below and bear fruit above.
- 4:2-3      32 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
and from Mount Zion a band of survivors.
The zeal of Jehovah of Hosts will accomplish it.
- 1:8      33 Therefore, thus says Jehovah
concerning the king of Assyria:
He shall not enter this city or shoot an arrow here.
He shall not advance against it with armor,
nor erect siegeworks against it.
- 38:6      34 By the way he came he shall return;
he shall not enter this city, says Jehovah.
- 38:6      35 I will protect this city and save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David.

36 Then the angel of Jehovah went out and slew a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp. And when men arose in the morning, there lay all their dead bodies!

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. And he returned to Nineveh, where he dwelt.

38 And as he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch his god, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer slew him with a sword and fled to the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon succeeded him as king.

38 In those days Hezekiah became gravely ill. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him and said, Thus says Jehovah: Put your house in order. You will die; you will not recover.

<sup>2</sup> At this Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall and prayed to Jehovah: <sup>3</sup> I beseech you to remember, O Jehovah, how I have walked before you faithfully and with full purpose of heart and have done what is good in your eyes . . . And Hezekiah wept disconsolately.

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of Jehovah came to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup> Go and tell Hezekiah, Thus says Jehovah, the God of your father David: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; I will protect this city.

<sup>22<sup>a</sup></sup> But Hezekiah said, What of a sign that I shall again go up to the house of Jehovah? <sup>7</sup> And Isaiah replied, This shall be a sign to you from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do the thing he has promised: <sup>8</sup> See, I make the shadow cast by the afternoon sun on the dial of Ahaz recede the ten degrees it has gone down. So the sun reversed its descent by ten degrees on the dial.

<sup>10</sup> I said, in the prime of life
5:14 must I depart through Sheol's gates, deprived of the balance of my years?

<sup>11</sup> I thought, I shall not see <sup>b</sup>Jehovah<sup>b</sup>
in the land of the living; 30:20 I shall not now behold Man
among those dwelling in mortality.

<sup>12</sup> My tabernacle is being uprooted,
carried away from me like a shepherd's tent.
38:1 My life is cut off like woven fabric;
he is severing me from the loom.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Can I contain myself until morning,
while like a lion he racks my whole frame?
21:11-12 Surely, as night has followed day,
you are bringing on my end!

<sup>c</sup>12 MT adds as night has followed day, you are bringing on my end! (so verse 13), a probable duplication. Compare LXX.

- 14 Like a mounting lark I twitter,
 like a dove I murmur.
 My eyes are drawn looking heavenward;
 [I am utterly sleepless<sup>d</sup>
 26:16–17 from bitterness of soul . . . ]<sup>e</sup>
 O Jehovah, I am in straits; be my surety!
- 15 But what shall I say
 when he has already spoken for me,
 when he himself has brought it about?
- 33:6 16 O my Lord, by means of such trials
 comes a newness of life,
 and throughout them all the renewal of my spirit.
- 17 Surely, for my own good I am in such dire distress;
by its means you draw my soul
 51:14 out of the Pit of Dissolution.
 For you have cast all my sins behind you, [restoring and reviving me].<sup>f</sup>
- 14:15 18 For Sheol cannot praise you, nor Death glorify you;
 those who go down into the Pit
 have no further hope of your faithfulness.
- 12:1–6 19 But the living, only they bring you praise,
 as I do this day;
 from father to sons they pass on the knowledge of your faithfulness.
- 56:7 20 O Jehovah, may it please you to save me,
 and we will perform music
 all the days of our lives in the house of Jehovah.

39 At that time Merodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and gifts to Hezekiah, for he had heard of his illness and recovery. <sup>2</sup> And Hezekiah was glad of them and showed the envoys<sup>d</sup> his treasury—the silver and gold, the spices and fragrant oils, and his entire armory and all that was in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>3</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and said, What did those men say to you, and where did they come from? And Hezekiah replied, They came from a distant land; they came to me from Babylon. <sup>4</sup> And Isaiab<sup>b</sup> asked, What did they see in your palace? And Hezekiah said, They saw everything there is in my palace. There is nothing in my treasuries that I did not show them.

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Jehovah of Hosts: <sup>6</sup> The time shall come when everything in your palace, and all that your forefathers have treasured up until now, shall be carried away to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says Jehovah. <sup>7</sup> And from among your own sons, your future offspring and descendants, they shall take some to serve as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> But Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Jehovah you have spoken is good. For he thought, Then there shall be peace and loyalty during my reign.

40 Comfort and give solace to my people,
says your God; <sup>2</sup> speak kindly to Jerusalem.
Announce to her that she has served her term,
that her guilt has been expiated.

<sup>51:17</sup> She has received from Jehovah's hand
double for all her sins.

<sup>62:10-11</sup> In the desert prepare the way for Jehovah;
in the wilderness

pave a straight highway for our God:
<sup>4</sup> every ravine must be raised up,
every mountain and hill made low;
<sup>42:16</sup> the uneven ground must become level
and rough terrain a plain.

<sup>59:19-20</sup> <sup>5</sup> For the glory<sup>a</sup> of Jehovah shall be revealed and all flesh see it at once.
By his mouth Jehovah has spoken it.

<sup>a</sup><sub>5</sub> Or, presence.

- 48:20      <sup>6</sup> A voice said, Announce it.
             And I asked, How shall I announce it?
             All flesh is grass,
             and at its best like a blossom of the field.
- 42:5      <sup>7</sup> <sup>b7</sup> Though the Spirit of Jehovah breathe within it,
             the people themselves are but herbage—<sup>8</sup> grass that withers, flowers that fade—
             only the word of our God endures forever.
- 52:7-10    <sup>9</sup> Scale the mountain heights,
             O Zion, herald of good tidings.
             Raise your voice mightily,
             O Jerusalem, messenger of good news.
             Make yourself heard, be not afraid;
             proclaim to the cities of Judah: Behold your God!
- 35:4      <sup>10</sup> See, my Lord Jehovah comes with power;
             his arm presides for him.
             His reward is with him; his work precedes him.
- 63:11-14   <sup>11</sup> Like a shepherd he pastures his flock:
             the lambs he gathers up with his arm
             and carries in his bosom;
             the ewes that give milk he leads gently along.
- 45:12      <sup>12</sup> Who measured out the waters
             with the hollow of his hand
             and gauged the heavens
             by the span of his fingers?
             Who compiled the earth's dust by measure,
             weighing mountains in scales,
             hills in a balance?
- 46:11      <sup>13</sup> Who has comprehended the Spirit of Jehovah,
             that a man should let him know his plan?
- 55:8-9     <sup>14</sup> Of whom was he counselled
             that he might be enlightened,
             by whom instructed in the path of discretion,
             imparting to him knowledge,
             acquainting him with the way of understanding?

<sup>b7</sup> MT adds Grass that withers, flowers that fade (so verse 8), a probable duplication. Compare 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; LXX.

- 41:1-2   <sup>15</sup> The nations are but drops from a bucket, counting no more than dust on a balance;
the isles he displaces as mere specks.
- 34:2   <sup>16</sup> Lebanon would not suffice to kindle a fire,
nor all its beasts be adequate for sacrifice.
- 34:2   <sup>17</sup> Before him all nations are as nothing;
as less than the ether they are reckoned by him.
- 46:5-6   <sup>18</sup> To whom then will you liken God?
What does he resemble in your estimation?
- 46:5-6   <sup>19</sup> A figure cast by the artisan,
overlaid by the smith with gold,
fitted with a silver chain from the craftsman?
- 41:7<sup>c</sup>   <sup>20</sup> The artisan encourages the smith,
and he who beats with a hammer
urges him who pounds the anvil.
- 44:12   <sup>21</sup> They say of the welding, It is good,
though they fasten it with riveting
that it may not come loose.
- 44:13-15   <sup>22</sup> Those too poor for this type of sacrifice
select a wood that resists decay.
They seek an expert sculptor
to carve them an image that will not deteriorate.
- 37:16   <sup>23</sup> Are you so unaware, that you have not heard?
Have you not been told before,
that you do not understand
by whom the earth was founded?
- 37:16   <sup>24</sup> —By him who sits enthroned above the earth's sphere,
to whom its inhabitants are as grasshoppers,
who suspends the heavens like a canopy,
stretching them out as a tent to dwell in.
- 41:25   <sup>25</sup> By him who brings potentates to nought and makes the authorities of the world null and void.
- 17:13   <sup>26</sup> When scarcely they are planted,
or scarcely they are sown,
when hardly their stock has taken root in the earth,
he puffs at them and they wither,
and a storm sweeps them off as chaff.

- 46:9      25 To whom then will you liken me,
to whom can I be compared? says the Holy One.
- 43:1      26 Lift your eyes heavenward and see:
Who formed these?
He who brings forth their hosts by number,
calling each one by name.
Because he is almighty and all powerful,
not one is unaccounted for.
- 51:22     27 Why then do you say, O Jacob,
and speak thus, O Israel:
Our path has become obscured from Jehovah;
our cause is overlooked by our God?
- 41:8-9    28 Is it not known to you; have you not heard?
Jehovah is the God of eternity,
Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not grow faint or weary;
his intelligence cannot be fathomed.
- 58:11     29 He supplies the weary with energy and increases in vigor those who lack strength.
- 49:4-5    30 Youths grow faint and weary,
and young men slump down of exhaustion.
- 49:4-5    31 But they who hope in Jehovah
shall be renewed in strength:
they shall ascend as on eagles' wings;
they shall run without wearying,
they shall walk and not faint.

41

- Be silent before me, O isles;
become still, you peoples!
Let them come forward and state their case;
let us stand trial together.
- 46:11-13   2 Who has raised up Righteousness from the east,
calling him to the place of his foot?
Who has delivered nations to him,
toppled their rulers,
rendering them as dust to his sword,
as driven stubble to his bow?
- 45:1      3 He puts them to flight, passing on unhindered
by paths his feet have never trod.

- 48:12      4 Who is at work accomplishing this,
foreordaining dynasties?
I, Jehovah, first and last, am he.
- 59:18      5 The isles look on in fear;
the ends of the earth are in trembling.
They flock together<sup>a</sup>
and come <sup>6</sup> to one another's aid, saying, each to his fellow, Courage!
- 44:1-2      8 But you, O Israel, my servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen,
offspring of Abraham my beloved friend, 51:2      9 you whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
called from its farthest limits—
to you I say, You are my servant;
I have accepted you and not rejected you.
- 43:5-6      10 Be not fearful, for I am with you;
be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you; I will also succor you 11:11-12      and uphold you with my righteous right hand.
- 11 See, all who are enraged at you shall earn shame and disgrace;
your adversaries shall come to nought, and perish.
- 17:13-14      12 Should you look for those who contend with you,
you shall not find them;
whoever wars against you
shall be reduced to nothing.
- 62:8      13 For I, Jehovah your God,
hold you by the right hand and say to you,
Have no fear; I will help you.
- 49:26      14 Be not afraid, you worms of Jacob;
O men of Israel, [be not dismayed]:<sup>b</sup>
I am your help, says Jehovah;
your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 I will make of you a sharp-toothed threshing sledge
of new design, full of spikes:

<sup>b</sup>14 A reconstruction based on meter and parallelism; compare verse 10.

- you shall thresh mountains to dust
and make chaff of hills.
- 41:2 <sup>16</sup> As you winnow them, a wind shall take them away,
a tempest dispel them.
Then will you rejoice in Jehovah
and glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- 48:21 <sup>17</sup> When the poor and needy require water,
and there is none,
and their tongue becomes parched with thirst,
I Jehovah will answer their want;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- 35:6-7 <sup>18</sup> I will open up streams in barren hill country,
springs in the midst of the plains;
I will turn the desert into lakes,
parched lands into fountains of water.
- <sup>19</sup> I will bring cedars and acacias,
myrtles and oleasters in the wilderness;
- 55:13 I will place cypresses,
elms and box trees in the steppes—
- <sup>20</sup> that all may see it and know, consider it,
and perceive that Jehovah's hand did this,
that the Holy One of Israel created it.
- 45:21 <sup>21</sup> Present your case, says Jehovah;
submit your evidence, says the King of Jacob.
- <sup>22</sup> Let them come forward and recount to us
their prophecies of events heretofore.
What were they? Tell us, that we may examine them
and know whether they were fulfilled.
Or predict the future for us:
- 43:9 <sup>23</sup> Tell us of events to come hereafter,
so that we may know you are gods.
Perform something good or evil
at which we will be dazzled and all stand in awe.
- 47:13 <sup>24</sup> It is clear you are of no account, that your works <sup>c</sup>amount to nothing;<sup>c</sup> 44:9-10 whoever accepts you is himself an abomination.

- <sup>28</sup> For when I looked there was no one,
 not one who could offer counsel,
 or when I questioned them,
 who could answer a word.
- <sup>29</sup> Surely they are all iniquitous,

- 51:4-5      4 Neither shall he himself grow dim or be bruised
 until he has brought about justice in the earth.
 The isles await his law.
- 44:24      5 Thus says Jehovah, God,
 who frames and suspends the heavens,
 who gives form to the earth and its creatures,
 the breath of life to the people upon it,
 spirit to those who walk on it:
- 48:15      6 I Jehovah have rightfully called you
 and will grasp you by the hand;
 I have created you and appointed you
 to be a covenant for the people,
 a light to the nations,<sup>b</sup>
- 49:6, 8      7 to open eyes that are blind,
 to free captives from confinement
 and from prison those who sit in darkness
- 9:2, 4      8 I am Jehovah; that is my name.
 I will not relinquish my glory to another,
 nor my praise to wrought idols.
- 48:6-7      9 The prophecies of the former events
 indeed came to pass,
 but new things I yet foretell.
 Before they spring up I declare them to you.
- 24:14-15    10 Sing to Jehovah a new song;
sing his praise from the end of the earth.
- 16:1      11 Let the sea roar,<sup>c</sup> and all that lives in it,
 the isles and they who inhabit them.
- 16:1      12 Let the desert and its cities raise their voice,
 and the villages where Kedar dwells;
 let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy
 and cry out from the tops of the mountains.
- 26:21      13 O let them give glory to Jehovah,
 and in the isles speak out in praise of him.
- 26:21      13 Jehovah will come forth like a warrior,
 his passions aroused like a fighter;

- 14 For a long time I have been silent,
keeping still and restraining myself.
But now I will scream like a woman in labor and breathe hard and fast all at once.
- 54:10 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills
and make all their vegetation wither;
I will turn rivers into dry land and evaporate lakes.
- 49:9–10 16 Then will I lead the blind by a way they did not know,
and guide them in paths unfamiliar;
the darkness confronting them I will turn into light,
and the uneven ground make level.
40:3–4 These things I will not fail to perform.
- 17 But those who trust in idols
and esteem their images as gods shall retreat in utter confusion.
- 18 O you deaf, listen; O you blind, look and see!
- 43:10 19 Who is blind but my own servant,
or so deaf as the messenger I have sent?
Who is blind like those I have commissioned,
as uncomprehending as the servant of Jehovah—
- 6:9 20 seeing much but not giving heed,
with open ears hearing nothing?
- 21 It is the will of Jehovah that,
because of his righteousness,
42:4 they magnify the law and become illustrious.
- 22 Instead, they are a people plundered and sacked,
all of them trapped in holes,
hidden away in dungeons.
- 5:29 They have become a prey, yet no one rescues them,
a spoil, yet none demands restitution.
- 23 Who among you hearing this will take heed of it hereafter,
and be mindful and obey?
- 10:6 24 Who is it that hands Jacob over to plunder
and Israel to despoilers, if not Jehovah, against whom we have sinned?

30:9 For they have no desire to walk in his ways or obey his law.

25 So in the heat of his anger
he pours out on them the violence of war, till it envelopes them in flames—
yet they remain unaware—9:18-19 till it sets them on fire;
yet they take it not to heart.

44:21-22 But now, thus says Jehovah—
he who formed you, O Jacob,
he who created you, O Israel:
Do not fear, for I have redeemed you.

I have called you by name; you are mine.
51:10-11 2 When you cross the waters, I will be with you;
when you traverse the rivers,
you shall not be overwhelmed.

33:14-15 Though you walk through the fire,
you shall not be burned;
its flame shall not consume you.

3 For I Jehovah am your God,
I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior;
Egypt I have appointed as ransom for you,
20:4 Cush and Seba I give in place of you.

4 Because you are precious and revered in my eyes,
and because I love you,
I give men in return for you,
peoples in exchange for your life.

5 Do not fear, for I am with you.
I will bring your offspring from the east
and gather you from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up!
to the south, Withhold not!
Bring my sons from afar
49:22 and my daughters from the end of the earth—

7 all who are called by my name, whom I have formed, molded and wrought
for my own glory.

- 42:7 <sup>8</sup> Let go the people who are blind, yet have eyes,
who are deaf, yet have ears.
- <sup>9</sup> When all nations unitedly assembled,
when the peoples were gathered together,
who among them foretold these things,
45:21 or predicted events that have come to pass?
Let them bring their witnesses
and justify themselves,
that those within hearing may say, It is true.
- 44:8 <sup>10</sup> But you are my witnesses, says Jehovah,
my servant whom I have chosen,
to the end that you may recognize it and believe me,
and perceive that I was the one who foretold them—
before me no god was formed, 45:14 nor shall one exist after me.
- <sup>11</sup> I myself am Jehovah;
apart from me there is no savior.
- 63:8–9 <sup>12</sup> It is I who foretold and wrought salvation, making it known
when there was no strange god among you.
You are my witnesses, says Jehovah,
that I am divine,
- 46:4 <sup>13</sup> that from the first I have been present—
from my hand none can deliver;
when I work, who can thwart it?
- <sup>14</sup> Thus says Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel,
your Redeemer:
For your sake I launch an attack on Babylon
and bring down as fugitives all the Chaldeans, 23:13 they who sing the praises of shipping.
- <sup>15</sup> I Jehovah, your Holy One,
Creator of Israel, am your King.
- <sup>16</sup> Thus says Jehovah—
11:15–16 who provides a way in the Sea,
a path through the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup> who dispatches chariots and horses,
armies of men in full strength;
37:36 they lie down as one, to rise no more,
they flicker and die, snuffed out like a wick—

- 18 Never mind the prophecies of bygone events;
do not dwell on things of the past.
- 42:9 19 See, I do a new thing; it is now springing up.
Surely, you are aware of it:
I am making roads through the desert,
35:6–8 streams in the wasteland.
- 20 The wild beasts do me honor,
the jackals and birds of prey,
for bringing water to the wilderness, 41:17–18 streams to the dry land,
that I may give drink to my chosen people,
21 the people I formed for myself
42:12 to speak out in praise of me.
- 22 But you do not call upon me, O Jacob;
you have grown weary of me, O Israel.
- 23 Yet I required not that you bring me offerings from your flocks
or pay me homage by sacrificial slaughter;
I have not burdened you with oblations
66:3 or wearied you with burning incense.
- 24 Nor have I burdened you to buy me
the fragrant calamus
or sate me with the fat of immolations.
53:5–6 Yet you have burdened me with your sins,
wearied me with your iniquities.
- 25 But it is I myself, and for my own sake,
who blot out your offenses, 44:22 remembering your sins no more.
- 26 Recount for me the past;
let us plead each our case.
Speak up and vindicate yourself.
- 27 Your first father transgressed;
your spokesmen sinned against me.
- 64:10–11 28 Therefore I let <sup>a</sup>“the holy cities<sup>a</sup>” be profaned;
I gave Jacob to be ostracized, Israel to execration.

<sup>a</sup>28 Hebrew šārê qōdeš, the princes of the sanctuary, emended to ārê qōdeš; compare 47:6; 64:10.

- 44 Hear now, Jacob my servant,
and Israel whom I have chosen.
- <sup>2</sup> Thus says Jehovah, your Maker,
who formed you from the womb and succored you:
41:14 Be not afraid, O Jacob, my servant,
and Jeshurun whom I have chosen.
- <sup>3</sup> I will pour water on the thirsty soil,
showers upon the dry ground;
54:13 I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring,
my blessing upon your posterity.
- <sup>4</sup> They shall shoot up like grass 43:20 among streams<sup>a</sup> of water, like willows by running brooks.
- <sup>5</sup> One will say, I am Jehovah's,
and another name himself Jacob.
43:7 Yet others will inscribe on their arm, To Jehovah, and adopt the name Israel.
- <sup>6</sup> Thus says Jehovah, the King of Israel, Jehovah of Hosts, their Redeemer:
I was at the first and I am at the last;
45:5 apart from me there is no God.
- <sup>7</sup> Who predicts <sup>b</sup>what happens<sup>b</sup> as do I,
and is the equal of me
in appointing a people from of old <sup>c</sup>as types,<sup>c</sup> 46:10 foretelling things to come?
- <sup>8</sup> Be not perturbed or shaken.
Have I not made it known to you from of old?
Did I not foretell it, you being my witnesses?
Is there a God, then, apart from me?
26:4 There is no Rock unknown to me.
- <sup>9</sup> All who manufacture idols are deranged;
the things they cherish profit nothing.
Those who promote them are themselves
42:17–20 sightless and mindless, to their own dismay.

<sup>c</sup>7 Hebrew wē'ōtîyôt, the coming things, emended to kē'ōtôt; compare 8:18; 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>, 45:11.

- 30:22      <sup>10</sup> Who would fashion a god or cast an idol that cannot benefit them?
- 41:5-6      <sup>11</sup> Their whole society is confused;
their fabricators are mere mortals.
Were they all to assemble and take their stand before me,
they would at once cringe in fear.
- 46:6      <sup>12</sup> The smith with his tools works the iron over the coals
and gives it shape by hammering;
he forges his god by the strength of his arm:
when he becomes hungry, he no longer has strength;
if he fails to drink water, he begins to grow faint.
- 46:9      <sup>13</sup> The woodworker draws a diagram,
sketching his idol with a marker.
He creates it by chiseling to the outline of the dividers;
he gives it a human likeness, resembling man's beauty,
fit to lodge in a house.
- 40:20      <sup>14</sup> He is required to cut down cedars;
he must select holms and oaks
and care for them among the trees of the forest.
He plants firs, which the rain makes grow:
- 2:8      <sup>15</sup> that which serves men as fuel,
which they use to warm themselves
or light fire with to bake bread,
of that they create gods which they adore,
from it they make idols to which they stoop.
- 47:14      <sup>16</sup> Half of it they burn in the fire.
<sup>d</sup>Over it they broil a roast;<sup>d</sup>
they eat the meat and are satisfied.
They also warm themselves and say,
Ah, it is warm <sup>e</sup>in front of<sup>e</sup> the fire!
- 46:7      <sup>17</sup> From the rest they make a god, their idol,
to which they bow in adoration and pray,
Save us; you are our god!

- 6:10 18 They have become unaware and insensible;
 their eyes are glazed so they cannot see,
 their minds are incapable of discernment.
- 19 They reflect not,
 nor have the sense or comprehension to say,
 A part of this I burned in the fire;
 I also baked bread in its embers,
 roasted meat and ate it.
 Am I not making an abomination of what is left?
 46:8 Do I not stoop to a mere lump of wood?
- 20 They are followers of ashes;
 their deluded minds have distracted them.
 They cannot liberate themselves from them or say,
 Surely this thing in my hand is a fraud.
- 40:27 21 Ponder these things, O Jacob, and you,<sup>f</sup> O Israel,
 for you are my servant.
 I have created you to be my servant, O Israel;
 Do not disregard me.
- 60:1-2 22 I have removed your offenses like a thick fog,
 your sins like a cloud of mist.
 31:6-7 Return to me; I have redeemed you.
- 23 Sing, O heavens, for what Jehovah has done;
 cause it to resound, O earth beneath!
 Burst into song, O mountains,
 forests, and all trees therein:
 Jehovah has redeemed Jacob;
 60:21 he shall be glorified in Israel.
- 24 Thus says Jehovah, your Redeemer,
 who formed you from the womb:
 I am Jehovah, the Maker of all things, 40:22 who alone suspends the heavens,
 who himself gives form to the earth, 25 who annuls the predictions of impostors
 and makes fools of diviners, 29:14 who turns wise men about and makes nonsense of their knowledge,

<sup>f</sup>21 Word transposed; in the text it follows created you.

50:10 <sup>26</sup> who fulfills the word of his servant,
 accomplishes the aims of his messengers,
 who says of Jerusalem, It shall be reinhabited, 58:12 and of the cities of Judah, They shall be rebuilt,
 their ruins I will restore, <sup>27</sup> who says to the deep, Become dry;
 I am drying up your currents,
 63:11–13 <sup>28</sup> who says of Cyrus, He is my shepherd;
 he will do whatever I will.
 He will say of Jerusalem that it must be rebuilt,
 45:13 its temple foundations relaid.

45 Thus says Jehovah to his anointed, 41:2 to Cyrus, whom I grasp by the right hand,
 to subdue nations before him,
 to ungird the loins of rulers,
 opening doors ahead of him,
 letting no gates remain shut:
 57:14 <sup>2</sup> I will go before you and level all obstacles;
 I will break in pieces brazen doors
 and cut through iron bars.
<sup>3</sup> I will give you hidden treasures 60:17 and secret hoards of wealth—
 that you may know that it is I Jehovah,
 the God of Israel, who calls you by name.
<sup>4</sup> For the sake of my servant Jacob,
 and Israel my chosen, I call you by name—49:1–3 I named you when yet you knew me not.
<sup>5</sup> I am Jehovah, there is none other;
 apart from me there is no God.
 I girded you up when yet you knew me not—<sup>6</sup> that men from where the sun rises to where it sets may know that without me there is nothing, that I am Jehovah, and that there is none other.
 9:2 <sup>7</sup> I fashion light and form darkness;
 I occasion peace and cause calamity.
 I, Jehovah, do all these things.
<sup>8</sup> Rain down from above, O heavens;
 let the skies overflow with righteousness.

- 46:13 Let the earth receive it and salvation <sup>a</sup>blossom;<sup>d</sup>
 let righteousness spring up forthwith.
 I, Jehovah, create it.
- 9 Woe to those in conflict with their Maker,
 mere shards of earthenware pottery!
 As though the clay were to say to him who molds it,
 29:16 What are you doing?
 Your hands have no skill for the work!
- 10 Woe to those who say to their Father,
 What have you begotten?
 66:7-9 or to the Woman, What have you borne?
- 11 Thus says Jehovah,
 the Holy One of Israel, their Maker:
 Will you ask me<sup>b</sup> for signs<sup>c</sup> concerning my children, 29:23 or dictate to me about the deeds of my hands?
- 12 It is I who made the earth
 and created man upon it;
 I with my hand<sup>d</sup> suspended the heavens,
 appointing all their host.
- 42:6-7 13 It is I who rightfully raise him up,
 who facilitate his every step;
 he will rebuild my city and set free my exiles 52:3, 5 without price or bribe, says Jehovah of Hosts.
- 14 Thus says Jehovah:
 43:3 The wealth of Egypt and merchandise of Cush <sup>e</sup>shall pass on to you and become yours,<sup>e</sup>
 as shall the Sabeans, a people tall in stature.
 They shall walk behind you in chains
 60:14 and bow down to you, entreating you,
 Surely God is in you; no other gods exist!
- 15 Truly you are a God who dissembles himself,
 O Savior, God of Israel.

- 42:17      <sup>16</sup> As one, the makers of inventions retired in disgrace, utterly dismayed and embarrassed.
- <sup>17</sup> But Israel is saved by Jehovah
              with an everlasting salvation;
              you shall not be dismayed or put to shame worlds without end.
- 40:21–22    <sup>18</sup> For thus says Jehovah who created the heavens,
              the God who formed the earth—
              who made it secure and organized it,
              not to remain a chaotic waste,
              but designed it to be inhabited:
              I am Jehovah, there is none other.
- 48:16      <sup>19</sup> I speak not in secret
              from somewhere in a land of darkness;
              I do not ask Jacob’s offspring
              to seek me amid chaos.
- 51:1        <sup>19</sup> I Jehovah tell righteousness
              and am forthright of speech.
- <sup>20</sup> Gather yourselves and come;
              draw near, all you fugitives of the nations.
              They who carried about their wooden idols
              and prayed to gods that could not save them were caught unawares.
- 37:18–19    <sup>21</sup> Speak up and present your case;
              go ahead and consult one another.
              Who foretold these things of old,
              predicted them long ago?
              Did not I, Jehovah,
              apart from whom there is no God?
- 44:7        <sup>21</sup> Did not I, the God of righteousness, except for whom there is no Savior?
- 41:2        <sup>22</sup> Turn to me and save yourselves,
              all you ends of the earth;
              I am God, there is none other.
- 63:1        <sup>23</sup> By myself I swear it—
              righteousness has issued from my mouth,
              by a decree that cannot be revoked:
              To me every knee shall bow
              and every tongue swear allegiance.

- 24 It shall be said of me,
 54:17 By Jehovah alone come vindication<sup>f</sup> and might.
 Before him must come in shame
 66:5 all who were incensed against him.
- 25 In Jehovah shall all Israel's offspring
 justify themselves and have cause to boast.

- 46 Bel slumps down, Nebo is stooped over:
 their idols are loaded upon beasts and cattle;
the images you bore aloft
 are piled as burdens on weary animals.
- 2 Such gods<sup>a</sup> altogether sag and bow down, 45:20 unable to rescue their burden;
 they themselves go into captivity.
- 3 Hear me, O house of Jacob,
 10:20–22 and all you remnant of the house of Israel,
 who have been a load on me since birth,
 borne up by me from the womb:
- 4 Even to your old age, I am present;
 till you turn grey, it is I who sustain you.
 63:9 It is I who made you, and I who bear you up;
 it is I who carry and rescue you.
- 5 To whom will you compare me or count me equal?
 To whom will you liken me, 40:18, 25 that we should appear similar?
- 6 They who squander gold from the purse
 and weigh out silver on the scales 41:7* hire a smith to make them a god
 they bow down to and worship.
- 7 They bear it aloft, carrying it on their shoulders;
 when they set it in place, there it stands,
 unable to budge from its spot.
 Though they cry to it for help, it does not answer;
 36:19–20 it cannot save them from trouble.
- 8 Put yourselves in mind of this and come to your senses;
 48:5 take it to heart, you offenders.

- 48:3     <sup>9</sup> Review the prophecies of the events of old!
           I am God, there is none other.
           I am divine; nothing resembles me.
- 44:7-8   <sup>10</sup> I foretell the end from the beginning,
           from ancient times things not yet done.
           I speak, and my purposes take effect;
           I accomplish all my will.
- 41:2, 25   <sup>11</sup> I summon a bird of prey from the east,
           from a distant land
           the man <sup>b</sup>who performs my counsel.<sup>b</sup>
- 48:15     What I have spoken, I bring to pass;
           what I have planned, I do.
- <sup>12</sup> Hear me, you stubborn-hearted,
           who are far from righteousness:
- 51:5     <sup>13</sup> I have brought near my righteousness;
           it is not now far off—
           my salvation shall no longer be delayed.
- 37:32-35   I will grant deliverance in Zion,
           and to Israel my glory.

- 47     Get down and sit in the dust,
           O Virgin Daughter of Babylon;
           squat on the ground, dethroned,
           O Daughter of the Chaldeans.
- 21:2, 9     You shall no more be spoken of
           as delicate and refined.
- <sup>2</sup> Take two grindstones and grind flour;
           unveil, disrobe, bare your legs,
           wade through streams:
- 57:12     <sup>3</sup> your nakedness shall be exposed
           and your shame uncovered.
           I will take vengeance
           and not be entreated of men,
- <sup>4</sup> says our Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel,
           whose name is Jehovah of Hosts.
- 63:4     <sup>5</sup> Sit speechless; retire into obscurity,
           O Daughter of the Chaldeans.

---

<sup>b</sup>II Or, I have foreordained.

- No longer shall you be called,
Mistress of Kingdoms.
- 43:28 <sup>6</sup> I was provoked by my people,
so I let my inheritance be defiled.
I gave them into your hand,
and you showed them no mercy;
- 10:27 even the aged you weighed down heavily with your yoke.
- <sup>7</sup> You thought, I, the Eternal Mistress, exist forever!
and did not consider these,<sup>a</sup>
or remember her<sup>a</sup> final destiny.
- <sup>8</sup> Now therefore hear this, O pampered lady,
securely enthroned, thinking to herself,
45:6 I exist, and other than me there is nothing;
I shall not be widowed or bereaved of children:
- <sup>9</sup> Bereavement and widowhood
14:22 shall suddenly overtake you, both in one day.
They shall come upon you in full,
notwithstanding your many magical feats
and exceedingly strong combinations.
- 29:20 <sup>10</sup> Secure in your wickedness,
you thought, No one discerns me.
By your skill and science you were led astray,
thinking to yourself, I exist,
and there is none besides me!
- 9:18 <sup>11</sup> Catastrophe shall overtake you,
which you shall not know how to avert by bribes;<sup>b</sup> disaster shall befall you
from which you cannot ransom yourself:
there shall come upon you sudden ruin 13:9–13 such as you have not imagined.
- <sup>12</sup> Persist, then, with your combinations
and with your many magical feats, 57:10 at which you have exerted yourself since your youth.
It may still be of use to you;
perhaps you can hinder<sup>c</sup> it.

- <sup>13</sup> But you are powerless, despite all your tactics.
 Now let those who unravel the heavens,
 who observe the stars
 41:22–24 and make predictions month by month,
 stand by you and save you!
- 13:19 <sup>14</sup> See, as stubble they are burnt up in the fire,
 unable themselves to escape the hand of the flame.
 These are no embers to warm anyone;
 44:16–19 such is no fire to sit by!
- <sup>15</sup> This is what your procurers<sup>d</sup> have profited you—
 those for whom you have exerted yourself
 since your youth—
 each deviates his own way;
 57:13 none is there to save you.

- 48 Hear this, O house of Jacob,
 you who are named Israel—
 though you<sup>a</sup> stem from the lineage<sup>b</sup> of Judah—
 who take oaths in the name of Jehovah
 and invoke the God of Israel, 58:2 though not in truth or in righteousness,
- <sup>2</sup> who call yourselves of the holy city,
 upheld by the God of Israel,
 whose name is Jehovah of Hosts:
- <sup>3</sup> The prophecies of the events of the past
 I made known long beforehand;
 48:16 no sooner did they issue from my mouth,
 than I caused them to be announced.
 Then, suddenly, I acted and they came about.
- 46:12 <sup>4</sup> For I knew how stubborn you were—
 your neck was an iron sinew, your brow brazen—<sup>5</sup> therefore I told you them beforehand;
 I announced them to you before they transpired, 47:10 lest you should say, My idols did it;
 my graven and wrought images caused it!

<sup>b</sup><sub>1</sub> Literally, loins. Hebrew mimmê, from the waters, emended to mimměê; compare the term in verse 19.

- 29:11 <sup>6</sup> But you have heard <sup>c</sup>the whole vision;<sup>c</sup>
 how is it you do not proclaim it?
 Yet as of now, I announce to you new things,
 42:9 things withheld and unknown to you,
<sup>7</sup> things now coming into being, not hitherto,
 things you have not heard of before,
 lest you should say, Indeed I knew them!
<sup>8</sup> You have not heard them,
 nor have you known them;
 52:15 before this your ears have not been open to them.
 For I knew you would turn treacherous;
 you were called a transgressor from the womb.
- 13:5, 9, 13 <sup>9</sup> For my own name's sake I have bridled my wrath;
 on account of my renown
 I have shown restraint toward you
 by not entirely destroying you.
- 30:20 <sup>10</sup> See, I am refining you, though not as silver;
 I am testing<sup>d</sup> you in the crucible of affliction.
- <sup>11</sup> For my own sake, on my own account, I do it,
 that my name<sup>e</sup> be not dishonored,
 nor my glory, which I give to no other.
- 44:6 <sup>12</sup> Hear me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called:
 I am he who was at the first,
 and I am he who is at the last.
- 45:12 <sup>13</sup> It was my hand that founded the earth,
 my right hand that stretched out the heavens;
 when I call them, they arise at once.
- 41:26 <sup>14</sup> All of you, assemble and hear:
 Who among you<sup>f</sup> foretold these things?
 It is him Jehovah loves,
 who shall perform his will in Babylon;
 his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.
- 46:11, 13 <sup>15</sup> I myself have spoken it, and also called him;
 I have brought him, and I will prosper<sup>g</sup> his way.

<sup>g</sup>15 So LXX; MT and he shall prosper.

- <sup>16</sup> Come near me and hear this:
 45:19 I have not made predictions in secret;
 at their coming to pass, I have been present.
 Now my Lord Jehovah has sent me;
 42:1 his Spirit is in me.<sup>b</sup>
- <sup>17</sup> Thus says Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel,
 your Redeemer:
 I Jehovah your God instruct you to your good,
 guiding you in the way you should go.
- 42:23 <sup>18</sup> Had you but obeyed my commandments,
 your peace would have been as a river,
 your righteousness like the waves of the sea; <sup>19</sup> your offspring would have been 10:22 as the sands in number,
 your descendants as many as their grains.
 Their names would not have been cut off
 4:3 and obliterated from my presence.
- <sup>20</sup> Go forth out of Babylon, flee from Chaldea!
 Make this announcement with resounding voice;
 broadcast it to the end of the earth.
 Say, Jehovah has redeemed his servant Jacob.
- 49:10 <sup>21</sup> They thirsted not when he led them through arid places:
 he caused water to flow for them from the rock;
 he cleaved the rock and water gushed out.
- 57:21 <sup>22</sup> But there is no peace, says Jehovah,
 for the wicked.

49 Hear me, O isles; listen, you distant peoples: Jehovah called me before I was in the belly;
 before I was in my mother's womb,
 45:4 he mentioned me by name.

<sup>2</sup> He has made my mouth like a sharp sword— in the shadow<sup>a</sup> of his hand he hid me.
 He has made me into a polished arrow—
 52:10* in his quiver he kept me secret.

- 42:1     <sup>3</sup> He said to me, You are my servant,
           Israel, in whom I will be glorified.
- <sup>4</sup> I had thought, I have labored in vain,
           I have spent my strength for nothing
           and to no purpose!
- 50:8-9    Yet my cause rested with Jehovah,
           my recompense with my God.
- <sup>5</sup> For now Jehovah has said—
           he who formed me from the womb
 43:1     to be his servant, to restore Jacob to him,
           Israel having been gathered to him;
           for I won honor in the eyes of Jehovah
 12:2     when my God became my strength—
- <sup>6</sup> he said: It is too small a thing for you to be my servant
           to raise up the tribes of Jacob
           and to restore those preserved of Israel.
           I will also appoint you to be a light to the nations,<sup>b</sup> 52:7, 10   that my salvation may be to the end of the earth.
- <sup>7</sup> Thus says Jehovah,
           the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel,
           to him who is despised as a person, 52:14     who is abhorred by his nation,
           a servant to those in authority:
           Kings shall rise up when they see you,
           princes shall prostrate themselves,
 52:13, 15   because Jehovah keeps faith with you,
           because the Holy One of Israel has chosen you.
- <sup>8</sup> Thus says Jehovah:
           At a favorable time I have answered you;
           in the day of salvation I have come to your aid:
           I have created you and appointed you
           to be a covenant of the people, 55:3-5     to restore the Land and reapportion the desolate estates,
- <sup>9</sup> to say to the captives, Come forth!
 42:6-7     and to those in darkness, Show yourselves!

<sup>b</sup>6 Also, Gentiles; compare verse 22; 42:1, 6.

- 40:11 They shall feed along the way
and find pasture on all barren heights;
- 10 they shall not hunger or thirst,
nor be smitten by the heatwave or the sun:
he who has mercy on them will guide them;
- 41:17–18 he will lead them by springs of water.
- 11 All my mountain ranges I will appoint as roads;
my highways shall be on high.
- 43:5–6 12 See these, coming from afar, these, from the northwest, and these, from the land of Sinim.
- 13 Shout for joy, O heavens; celebrate, O earth!
Burst into song, O mountains!
Jehovah is comforting his people,
40:1–2 showing compassion for his afflicted.
- 14 But Zion said, Jehovah has forsaken me,
my Lord has forgotten me.
- 15 Can a woman forget her suckling infant,
or feel no compassion for the child of her womb?
Although these shall forget, I will not forget you.
- 53:5 16 See, I have engraved you on my palms;
‘I have sealed you<sup>c</sup> to be continually before me.
- 17 Your sons shall hasten your ravagers away—
those who ruined you shall depart from you.
- 60:4, 9 18 Lift up your eyes and look around you;
with one accord they gather and come to you.
As surely as I live, says Jehovah,
you shall adorn yourself with them all as with jewels,
bind them on you as does a bride.
- 1:7 19 For your ruins and ravaged places,
and your land laid waste,
shall now be too small for your inhabitants,
despite the departure of your devourers.
- 54:1 20 The children born during the time of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears,
This place is too cramped for us;
14:1–2 give us space in which to settle!

<sup>c</sup>16 Hebrew ḥômōtayik, your walls, emended to ḥātamtik.

- 21 And you will say to yourself,
 Who bore me these while I was bereaved and barren?
 I was exiled, banished;
 56:7-8 by whom were these reared?
 When I was left to myself, where were they?
- 22 Thus says my Lord Jehovah:
 I will lift up my hand to the nations, 11:10-12 raise my ensign to the peoples;
 and they will bring your sons in their bosoms
 and carry your daughters on their shoulders.
- 60:10-11 23 Kings shall be your foster fathers,
 queens your nursing mothers.
 They will bow down before you,
 45:14 their faces to the ground;
 they will lick the dust of your feet.
 Then shall you know that I am Jehovah,
 40:31 and that they who hope in me are not disappointed.
- 24 Can the warrior's spoil be taken from him,
 or the tyrant's<sup>d</sup> captives escape free?
- 10:5-6 25 Yet thus says Jehovah: The warrior's spoil<sup>e</sup> shall indeed be taken from him,
 and the tyrant's captives<sup>f</sup> escape free:
 I myself will contend with your contenders,
 9:4 and I will deliver your children.
- 26 I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh;
 they shall be drunk with their own blood as with wine.
 And all flesh shall know that I Jehovah am your Savior, 60:16 that your Redeemer is the Valiant One of Jacob.

50

- Thus says Jehovah:
 Where is your mother's bill of divorce
 with which I cast her out?
 Or to which of my creditors did I sell you?
 55:7 Surely, by sinning you have sold yourselves;
 because of your crimes was your mother an outcast.

- 66:4           <sup>2</sup> Why was no one there when I came;
                   why did no one answer when I called?
                   Was my hand too short to redeem you;
                   have I no power to deliver?
 51:10          By a mere rebuke I dry up the Sea;
                   rivers I turn into desert—
                   their fish become parched<sup>a</sup> for lack of water and perish because of thirst.
- 60:2           <sup>3</sup> I clothe the heavens with the blackness of mourning;
                   I put up sackcloth to cover them.
- 43:22          <sup>4</sup> My Lord Jehovah has endowed me with a learned tongue, that I may know how to preach
                   to those grown weary a word to wake them up.
                   Morning by morning he wakens my ear to hear,
                   as at study;
- 52:14          <sup>5</sup> my Lord Jehovah has opened my ear,
                   and I rebel not, nor back away:
- <sup>6</sup> I offered my back to smiters,
                   my cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;
                   I hid not my face from insult and spitting.
- 49:7           <sup>7</sup> Because my Lord Jehovah helps me,
                   I shall not be disgraced;
                   I have set my face like flint,
                   knowing I shall not be confounded.
- 42:1           <sup>8</sup> He who vindicates me is near me.
                   Who has a dispute with me? Let us face one another!
                   Who will bring charges against me?
                   Let him confront me with them!
- 51:8           <sup>9</sup> See, my Lord Jehovah sustains me.
                   Who then will incriminate me?
                   Surely all such shall wear out like a garment;
                   the moth shall consume them.
- 9:2            <sup>10</sup> Who among you fears Jehovah
                   and heeds the voice of his servant,
                   who, though he walk in the dark and have no light,
                   trusts in the name of Jehovah and relies on his God?

59:9 <sup>11</sup> But you are lighters of fires, all of you,
 who illuminate<sup>b</sup> with mere sparks.
 Walk then by the light of your fires
 and by the sparks you have kindled.
 This shall you have from my hand:
 you shall lie down in agony.

51 Hear me, you followers of righteousness, seekers of Jehovah:
 17:10 Look to the rock from which you were cut,
 to the quarry out of which you were hewn;
 2 look to Abraham your father,
 to Sarah who bore you.
 41:8–9 He was but one when I called him,
 but I blessed him by making him many.
 3 For Jehovah is comforting Zion, bringing solace to all her ruins;
 he is making her wilderness like Eden,
 35:1–2 her desert as the garden of Jehovah.
 Joyful rejoicing takes place there,
 thanksgiving with the voice of song.
 4 Listen to me, my people;
 give heed to me, O my nation:
 2:3, 5 The law shall go forth from me;
 my precepts shall be a light to the peoples.
 Then, suddenly, I will act:
 46:12–13 <sup>5</sup> My righteousness shall be at hand and my salvation proceed;
 my arms shall judge the peoples—
 42:4 the isles anticipate me, awaiting my arm.
 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens;
 look on the earth beneath:
 50:3 the heavens shall vanish as by smoke,
 the earth wear out like a garment—
 its inhabitants shall die in the manner of vermin.
 45:17 But my salvation shall be everlasting;
 my righteousness shall never fail.

<sup>b</sup>11 Hebrew mě'azrê, gird up, emended to mě'ÿrê.

- 21:10     7 Hear me, you who know righteousness,
             O people in whose heart is my law:
             Do not fear the reproach of men;
             be undaunted by their ridicule.
- 8 For the moth shall consume them like a garment;
             moths shall devour them like wool.
- 62:1-2     But my righteousness shall endure forever,
             my salvation through endless generations.
- 52:10*     9 Awake, arise; clothe yourself with power,
             O arm of Jehovah!
             Bestir yourself, as in ancient times,
             as in generations of old.
             Was it not you who carved up Rahab,
             you who slew the dragon?
- 43:16     10 Was it not you who dried up the Sea,
             the waters of the mighty deep,
             and made of ocean depths a way
             by which the redeemed might pass?
- 35:10     11 Let the ransomed of Jehovah return!
             Let them come singing to Zion,
             their heads crowned with everlasting joy;
             let them obtain joy and gladness,
             and sorrow and sighing flee away.
- 29:19     12 I myself am your Comforter.
             Who are you that you fear mortal man,
             the children of men who shall be turned to grass?
- 51:16     13 Have you forgotten Jehovah, your Maker—
             who suspends the heavens,
             who sets the earth in place—
             that you go all day in constant dread
             of the oppressor's rage
             as he readies himself to wreak destruction?
             What is there to the wrath of the oppressor?
- 14:6, 17   14 Soon now shall he who is bowed down be set free;
             he shall not die as those destined for the Pit,
             neither shall he want for food.
- 5:30     15 It is I Jehovah your God,
             whose name is Jehovah of Hosts,
             who stir up the Sea so that its waves roar.

- 59:21 <sup>16</sup> I will put my words in your mouth
and shelter you in the shadow of my hand,
while I replant the heavens and set the earth in place,
that I may say to Zion, You are my people.
- 52:1-2 <sup>17</sup> Rouse yourself; awaken and rise up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk from Jehovah's hand
the cup of his wrath,
drinking to the dregs the bowl of stupor.
- 50:1 <sup>18</sup> There was none to guide her
among all the children she bore,
none to take her by the hand of all the sons she reared.
- 3:25-26 <sup>19</sup> Twofold calamity has befallen you:
desolation, ruin—and who laments you?
famine, the sword—and who consoles<sup>a</sup> you?
- <sup>20</sup> Your children lie in a faint at the corner of every street,
taken in a net like buffalo.
They have their fill of the wrath of Jehovah,
of your God's angry rebuke.
- 48:9-10 <sup>21</sup> Now therefore hear this, O wretched one,
drunk, though not with wine.
- <sup>22</sup> Thus says Jehovah, your Lord and God,
who defends the cause of his people:
I am taking the cup of stupor from your hand;
you shall drink no more from the bowl of my wrath.
- 60:14 <sup>23</sup> And I give it into the hand of your tormentors,
those who said of your life,
Lie prostrate that we may go over you—
so that you made your back as the ground,
a mere thoroughfare to passers-by.

52 Awake, arise; clothe yourself with power, O Zion!
Put on your robes of glory, O Jerusalem, holy city.
No more shall the uncircumcised and defiled enter you.

- 47:1-3 <sup>2</sup> Shake yourself free, rise from the dust;
sit enthroned, O Jerusalem.
Loose yourself from the bands around your neck,
O captive Daughter of Zion.
- 61:1-3

<sup>a</sup>19 So 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; LXX. MT how can I console.

- 55:1-7      <sup>3</sup> Thus says Jehovah: You were sold without price,
and you shall be redeemed without money.
- 10:24      <sup>4</sup> For thus says my Lord Jehovah:
At first my people went down to Egypt to sojourn there.
Then the Assyrians subjected them for nothing.
- 3:12      <sup>5</sup> And now, what have I here?<sup>2</sup> says Jehovah.
My people are taken over without price;
those who govern them “act presumptuously,<sup>a</sup>” says Jehovah,
and my name is constantly abused all the day.
- 26:8      <sup>6</sup> Therefore shall my people come to know my name;
in that day they shall know that I, who speak, am at hand.
- 62:10-11      <sup>7</sup> Then shall they say,
How comely upon the mountains
are the feet of the messenger announcing peace,
who brings tidings of good,
who heralds salvation,
saying to Zion, Your God reigns!
- 40:9-10      <sup>8</sup> Hark! Your watchmen lift up their voice;
as one they cry out for joy:
for they shall see eye to eye
when Jehovah returns to Zion.
- 51:9-11      <sup>10<sup>b</sup></sup> Jehovah has bared his holy arm
in the eyes of all nations, that all ends of the earth may see our God’s salvation.
- 51:3      <sup>9</sup> Break out all together into song,
you ruined places of Jerusalem:
Jehovah has comforted his people;
he has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 48:20      <sup>11</sup> Turn away, depart;
touch nothing defiled as you leave Babylon.<sup>c</sup>
Come out of her and be pure,
you who bear Jehovah’s vessels.

- 58:8     <sup>12</sup> But you shall not leave in haste or go in flight:
           Jehovah will go before you,
           the God of Israel behind you.
- 42:1, 4   <sup>13</sup> My servant, being astute, shall be highly exalted;
           he shall become exceedingly eminent:
<sup>14</sup> just as he<sup>d</sup> appalled many—
- 57:17–19   his appearance was marred beyond human likeness, his semblance unlike that of men—
- <sup>15</sup> So shall he yet astound<sup>e</sup> many nations,
           kings shutting their mouths at him—
- 48:6–8    what was not told them, they shall see;
           what they had not heard, they shall consider.

53

Who has believed our revelation?
 On whose account has the arm of Jehovah been revealed?

- <sup>2</sup> Like a sapling he grew up in his presence,
 a stalk out of arid ground.
 He had no distinguished appearance,
 that we should notice him;
 45:15    he had no pleasing aspect,
           that we should find him attractive.
- <sup>3</sup> He was despised and disdained by men,
 a man of grief, accustomed to suffering.
 63:5    As one from whom men hide their faces
           he was shunned, deemed by us of no merit.
- <sup>4</sup> Yet he bore our sufferings, endured our griefs,
 though we thought him stricken,
 smitten of God, and humbled.
- 43:25–27 <sup>5</sup> But he was pierced for our transgressions, crushed because of our iniquities;
 26:12   the price of our peace he incurred,
           and with his wounds we are healed.
- <sup>6</sup> We all like sheep had gone astray,
 each of us headed his own way;
 43:23–24 Jehovah brought together upon him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>d</sup><sub>14</sub> Hebrew you.

<sup>e</sup><sub>15</sub> Or, startle; also purge, sprinkle.

- 7 He was harassed, yet submissive,
and opened not his mouth—43:12 like a lamb led to slaughter,
like a sheep, dumb before its shearers,
he opened not his mouth.
- 8 By arrest and trial he was taken away.
Who can apprise his generation
that he was cut off from the land of the living 63:8–9 for the crime of my people,
to whom the blow was due?
- 9 He was appointed among the wicked in death,<sup>a</sup>
among the rich was his burial,<sup>b</sup>
yet he had done no violence,
and deceit was not in his mouth.
- 10 But Jehovah willed to crush him,
causing him suffering,
24:5–6 that, if he<sup>c</sup> made his life an offering for guilt,
he might see his offspring and prolong his days,
and that the purposes of Jehovah 48:15 might prosper in his hand.
- 11 He shall see the toil of his soul and be satisfied;
because of his knowledge,
53:5–6 and by bearing their iniquities,
shall my servant, the righteous one, vindicate many.
- 12 I will assign him an inheritance among the great,
and he shall divide the spoil with the mighty, 38:10–20 because he poured out his soul unto death,
and was numbered with criminals—
he bore the sins of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 Sing, O barren woman who did not give birth;
break into jubilant song, you who were not in labor.
The children of the deserted wife
49:18–22 shall outnumber those of the espoused, says Jehovah.

---

- <sup>2</sup> Expand the site of your tent;
 extend the canopies of your dwellings.
 33:20 Do not hold back; lengthen your cords
 and strengthen your stakes.
- <sup>3</sup> For you shall spread abroad
 to the right and to the left;
 your offspring shall dispossess the nations
 and resettle the desolate cities.
 58:12
- <sup>4</sup> Be not fearful, for you shall not be confounded;
 be not ashamed, for you shall not be disgraced.
 You shall forget the shame of your youth and remember no more
 the reproach of your widowhood.
- 62:4–5 <sup>5</sup> For he who espouses you is your Maker,
 whose name is Jehovah of Hosts;
 he who redeems you is the Holy One of Israel,
 who is called the God of all the earth.
- 49:13–14 <sup>6</sup> Jehovah calls you back
 as a spouse forsaken and forlorn,
 a wife married in youth only to be rejected,
 says your God.
- 2:6 <sup>7</sup> I forsook you indeed momentarily,
 but with loving compassion I will gather you up.
- 8:17 <sup>8</sup> In a fleeting surge of anger I hid my face from you,
 but with everlasting charity
 I will have compassion on you,
 says Jehovah, who redeems you.
- 10:22–23 <sup>9</sup> This is to me as in the days<sup>a</sup> of Noah,
 when I swore that the waters of Noah would no more flood the earth.
 So I swear to have no more anger toward you,
 never again to rebuke you.
- 24:18–20 <sup>10</sup> For the mountains shall be removed and the hills collapse with shaking,
 but my charity toward you shall never be removed,
 nor my covenant of peace be shaken,
 61:8 says Jehovah, who has compassion on you.

<sup>a</sup>9 So 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; MT waters.

- 51:21 <sup>11</sup> Poor wretch, tempest-tossed and disconsolate!
 I will lay antimony for your building stones
 and sapphires for your foundations;
- <sup>12</sup> I will make your skylights of jacinth,
 your gates of carbuncle,
 and your entire boundary of precious stones.
- 59:21 <sup>13</sup> All your children shall be taught by Jehovah,
 and great shall be the peace of your posterity.
- <sup>14</sup> You shall be firmly established through righteousness;
 you will be far from oppression
 and have no cause to fear,
 far from ruin, for it shall not approach you.
- 41:10-13 <sup>15</sup> Those who gather into mobs are not of me;
 whoever masses against you shall fall because of you.
- 31:8-9 <sup>16</sup> It is I who create the smith who fans the flaming coals, forging weapons to suit his purpose;
 it is I who create the ravager to destroy.
- 21:2 <sup>17</sup> Whatever weapon is devised against you,
 it shall not succeed;
 every tongue that rises to accuse you,
 you shall refute.
 This is the heritage of the servants of Jehovah, and such is their vindication<sup>b</sup> by me, says Jehovah.
- 45:24

55

- Attention, all who thirst; come for water!
 You who have no money,
 come and buy food, that you may eat.
- 60:16 Come, buy wine and milk
 with no money and at no cost.
- <sup>2</sup> Why do you spend money on what is not bread,
 your labor on what does not satisfy?
- 1:19 Hear me well: Eat what is good,
 and your souls shall enjoy abundance.
- <sup>3</sup> Give ear and come unto me;
 pay heed, that your souls may live!
 And I will make with you an everlasting covenant:
my loving fidelity toward David.
- 22:22-23

<sup>b</sup>17 Or, righteousness; compare verse 14.

- 42:1-6 <sup>4</sup> See, I have appointed him as a witness to the nations,
a prince and lawgiver of the peoples.
- 52:13 <sup>5</sup> You will summon a nation that you did not know;
a nation that did not know you will hasten to you—
because of Jehovah your God,
the Holy One of Israel, who gloriously endows you.
- 1:16 <sup>6</sup> Inquire of Jehovah while he is present;
call upon him while he is near.
- 44:22 <sup>7</sup> Let the wicked forsake their ways
and sinful men their thoughts.
Let them return to Jehovah,
and he will have mercy on them;
to our God, who graciously pardons.
- 45:8 <sup>8</sup> For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says Jehovah.
- <sup>9</sup> But as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts higher than your thoughts.
- 44:26 <sup>10</sup> And as the rains and snows descend from the sky,
and return not to it without watering the earth,
to render it fertile and fruitful—
providing seed for the sower and food for the eater—
- <sup>11</sup> so is the word that leaves my mouth:
it does not return to me empty;
it accomplishes what I desire,
achieves the purpose for which I sent it.
- 49:9-11 <sup>12</sup> You shall depart in joy and be led back in peace;
the mountains and hills shall sing at your presence
and the trees of the meadows all clap their hands.
- 41:19-20 <sup>13</sup> In place of the thornbush shall come up the cypress,
in place of nettles, the myrtle.
This shall serve as a testimony of Jehovah,
an everlasting sign that shall not be done away.

- 51:4-5 Thus says Jehovah:
Observe justice and perform righteousness,
for my salvation will soon come when my righteousness is revealed.

- 2 Blessed is the man who does so—
the person who holds fast to them—58:13 who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it,
who stays his hand from doing any evil.
- 14:1 3 Let not the foreigner who adheres to Jehovah say,
Jehovah will surely exclude me from his people.
And let not the eunuch say, I am but a barren tree.
- 4 For thus says Jehovah:
As for the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths and choose to do what I will—42:6 holding fast to my covenant—
5 to them I will give a handclasp and a name within the walls of my house
that is better than sons and daughters;
I will endow them with an everlasting name 66:22 that shall not be cut off.
- 6 And the foreigners who adhere to Jehovah
to serve him,
26:13 who love the name of Jehovah,
that they may be his servants—
all who keep the Sabbath without profaning it,
holding fast to my covenant—
7 these I will bring to my holy mountain and gladden in my house of prayer.
Their offerings and sacrifices 19:19, 21 shall be accepted on my altar, for my house shall be known as a house of prayer for all nations.
- 8 Thus says my Lord Jehovah,
27:13 who gathers up the outcasts of Israel:
I will gather others to those already gathered.
- 9 All you wild beasts, you animals of the forest,
come and devour!
- 42:18–20 10 Their watchmen are altogether blind and unaware;
all of them are but dumb watchdogs unable to bark, 29:10 lolling seers fond of slumber.
- 11 Gluttonous dogs, and insatiable,
such indeed are insensible shepherds.

53:6 They are all diverted to their own way,
every one after his own advantage.
12 Come, they say, let us get wine
28:7 and have our fill of liquor.
For tomorrow will be like today, only far better!

57 The righteous<sup>a</sup> disappear,
and no man gives it a thought;
the godly are gathered out, 13:3 but no one perceives that from impending calamity
the righteous are withdrawn.
2 They who walk uprightly shall attain peace,
26:3 and rest in their beds.
3 As for you, come here, you children of the sorceress,
offspring of adulterer and harlot!
4 At whose expense do you amuse yourselves?
At whom do you open wide the mouth
3:8-9 and stick out the tongue?
Surely you are born of sin, a spurious brood,
5 who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every burgeoning tree,
1:21 slayers of children in the gullies
under the crags of rocks.
6 Among the slippery stones of the ravines shall be your fate; they indeed are your lot.
To them you pour out libations and make offerings.
65:6-7 How shall I be appeased of such things?
7 On a lofty mountain
you have made prominent your bed,
and there you ascend to offer sacrifices.
8 Behind doors and facades
you have put up your emblems,
and have exposed yourself to others than I:
39:1-4 mounting your bed, you have laid it wide open.
And you bargain with those with whom you love to lie,
your hand on their nakedness.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>b</sup>8 Literally, foreparts.

- 9 You bathe<sup>c</sup> with oils for the king
 and increase your perfumes;
 47:5 you send your solicitors far abroad and debase yourself to the depths.<sup>d</sup>
- 10 Though wearied by your excessive ways, 23:16 you have not admitted despair;
 you have found livelihood,
 and therefore have not slackened.
- 11 Yet on whose account are you uneasy and apprehensive, 43:22 that you pretend and do not mention me,
 nor even give me a thought?
 Is it because I have so long kept silent
 that you no longer fear me?
- 47:3 12 But I will expose your fornication and the wantonness of your exploits.
- 13 When you cry out in distress,
 let those who flock to you save you!
 41:16 A wind shall carry all of them off;
 a vapor shall take them away.
- But they who seek refuge in me shall possess the earth and receive an inheritance in my holy mountain.
- 62:10–11 14 It will be said: Excavate, pave a road!
 Prepare the way;
 remove the obstacles from the path of my people!
- 6:1 15 Thus says he who is highly exalted,
 who abides forever, whose name is sacred:
 I dwell on high in the holy place,
 66:1–2 and with him who is humble and lowly in spirit—refreshing the spirits of the lowly,
 reviving the hearts of the humble.
- 12:1 16 I will not contend forever, nor always be angry;
 the spirits and souls I have made would faint before me.
- 17 By his sin of covetousness I was provoked;
 I struck him and hid my face in anger
 when he strayed by following the ways of his heart.

- 38:9 <sup>18</sup> Yet I have seen his conduct and I will heal him;
I will guide him and amply console him
and those who mourn for him, 53:5 <sup>19</sup> who partake<sup>e</sup> of the fruit of the lips:
Peace, wellbeing, to those far off
and to those who are near,
says Jehovah who heals him.
- 17:12 <sup>20</sup> But the wicked are like the raging Sea,
unable to rest,
whose waters heave up mire and mud:
48:21 <sup>21</sup> there is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.

58

- Proclaim it aloud without restraint;
raise your voice like a trumpet!
Declare to my people their transgressions,
to the house of Jacob its sins.
- 48:1 <sup>2</sup> Yet they importune me daily,
eager to learn my ways,
like a nation practicing righteousness
and not forsaking the precepts of its God.
- They inquire of me concerning correct ordinances,
desiring to draw nearer to God:
29:13 <sup>3</sup> Why, when we fast, do you not notice?
We afflict our bodies and you remain indifferent!
It is because on your fast day you pursue your own ends
and constrain all who toil for you.
- 3:5 <sup>4</sup> You fast amid strife and contention,
striking out savagely with the fist.
Your present fasts are not such 59:2 as to make your voice heard on high.
- <sup>5</sup> Is this the manner of fasting I have required,
just a time for men to torment themselves?
Is it only for bowing one's head like a reed
and making one's bed of sackcloth and ashes?
24:5 Do you call that a fast,
a day of Jehovah's good graces?

<sup>e</sup>19 Hebrew bôrē, create, emended to bôrê.

- 9:4           6 Is not this the fast I require:
                   To release from wrongful bondage,
                   to untie the harness of the yoke,
                   to set the oppressed at liberty and abolish all forms of subjection?
- 25:4           7 Is it not to share your food with the hungry,
                   to bring home the wretchedly poor,
                   and when you see men underclad to clothe them,
                   and not to neglect your own kin?
- 9:2            8 Then shall your light break through like the dawn and your healing speedily appear;
                   your righteousness will go before you,
                   and the glory of Jehovah will be your rearguard.
- 30:19          9 Then, should you call, Jehovah will respond;
                   should you cry, he will say, I am here.
                   Indeed, if you will banish servitude from among you,
                   and the pointing finger and offensive speech,
- 60:1-2       10 if you will give of your own to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then shall your light dawn amid darkness
                   and your twilight become as the noonday.
- 66:14       11 Jehovah will direct you continually;
                   he will satisfy your needs in the dearth
                   and bring vigor to your limbs.
                   And you will become like a well-watered garden,
                   like a spring of unfailing waters.
- 61:4         12 They who came out of you will rebuild the ancient ruins;
                   you will restore the foundations of generations ago.
                   You shall be called a rebuilder of fallen walls,
                   a restorer of streets for resettlement.
- 56:4, 6      13 If you will keep your feet from trampling the Sabbath—
                   from achieving your own ends on my holy day—
                   and consider the Sabbath a delight,
                   the holy day of Jehovah venerable,
                   and if you will honor it
                   by refraining from your everyday pursuits—
                   from occupying yourselves with your own affairs and speaking of business matters—

<sup>14</sup> then shall you delight in Jehovah, 40:31 and I will make you traverse the heights of the earth and nourish you with the heritage of Jacob your father.
 By his mouth Jehovah has spoken it.

59 Surely Jehovah's hand has not become too short to save,
 nor his ear dull of hearing!
<sup>2</sup> It is your iniquities that separate you from your God;
 1:15 your sins hide his face, so that he does not hear you.
<sup>3</sup> For your palms are defiled with blood,
 your fingers with iniquity;
 your lips speak guile, your tongue utters duplicity.
 46:12 <sup>4</sup> None calls for righteousness;
 no one sues for an honest cause.
 They rely on empty words, deceitfully spoken;
 they conceive misdeeds, they beget wickedness.
 32:6-7 <sup>5</sup> They hatch vipers' eggs and spin spiders' webs;
 whoever eats of their eggs dies,
 and if any is smashed, there emerges a serpent.
<sup>6</sup> Their cobwebs are useless as clothing;
 their fabrications are worthless for covering themselves.
 Their works consist of wrongdoing;
 30:12 they manipulate injurious dealings.
<sup>7</sup> Their feet rush after evil;
 they hasten to shed innocent blood.
 Their thoughts are preoccupied with mischief;
 havoc and disaster follow in their wake.
 26:10 <sup>8</sup> They are unacquainted with the way of perfection;
 integrity is not within their bounds.
 They have made crooked their paths;
 57:21 none who treads them knows peace.
<sup>9</sup> Therefore redress remains far from us
 and righteousness is unable to reach us.
 We look for light, but there prevails darkness;
 50:10-11 for a glimmer of hope, but we walk amid gloom.
<sup>10</sup> We grope along the borders like the blind;
 we flounder like those without eyes.
 We stumble at noon as in the dark of night;
 8:22 in the prime of life we resemble the dead.

- 17:10      <sup>11</sup> We grumble like bears, all of us;
                  we moan incessantly like doves.
                  We expect justice when there is none;
                  we look for salvation, but it eludes us.
- 64:6-7      <sup>12</sup> For our transgressions before you have multiplied;
                  our sins testify against us.
                  Our offenses are evident; we perceive our iniquities:
                  <sup>13</sup> willfully denying Jehovah,
                  backing away from following our God,
                  perversely planning ways of extortion,
                  conceiving in the mind and pondering
                  illicit transactions.
- 48:18      <sup>14</sup> And so redress is compelled to back away,
                  and righteousness to stand at a distance;
                  truth stumbles in the public place
                  and uprightness cannot enter.
- 10:1-2      <sup>15</sup> When integrity is lacking,
                  they who shun evil become a prey.
                  Jehovah saw that there was no justice,
                  and it displeased him.
- 52:10*      <sup>16</sup> When he saw it, he wondered why there was no man, no one who would intercede.
- 41:2      <sup>17</sup> So his own arm brought about salvation for him;
                  his righteousness rallied to his cause.
                  <sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness as a breastplate and made salvation the helmet on his head;
                  he clothed himself with vengeance for a garment
                  and wrapped himself in fury as in a robe.
- 63:2-4      <sup>18</sup> According to what they deserve, he will repay them:
                  wrath upon his adversaries,
                  reprisals upon his enemies;
                  to the isles he will render retribution.
- 40:5, 10      <sup>19</sup> From the west men will fear Jehovah Omnipotent,<sup>a</sup>
                  and from the rising of the sun his glory.
                  <sup>19</sup> For he will come upon them like a hostile torrent
                  impelled by the Spirit of Jehovah.

<sup>a</sup>19 Literally, the name of Jehovah.

<sup>20</sup> But he will come as Redeemer to Zion, 1:27 to those of Jacob who repent of transgression,
 says Jehovah.

<sup>21</sup> As for me, this is my covenant with them, says Jehovah: My Spirit which is upon you and my words which I have placed in your mouth shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your offspring, nor from the mouth of their offspring, says Jehovah, from now on and forever.

60 Arise, shine, your light has dawned;
 the glory of Jehovah has risen upon you!
<sup>2</sup> Although darkness covers the earth,
 and a thick mist the peoples,
 4:5 upon you Jehovah will shine;
 over you his glory shall be visible.
<sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light,
 62:1–2 their kings to the brightness of your dawn.
<sup>4</sup> Lift up your eyes and look about you!
 They have all assembled to come to you:
 your sons shall arrive from afar;
 49:18, 22 your daughters shall return to your side.
<sup>5</sup> Then, when you see it, your face will light up,
 your heart swell with awe:
 the multitude of the Sea shall resort to you;
 a host of nations shall enter you.
 66:20 <sup>6</sup> A myriad of camels shall cover your land,<sup>a</sup>
 the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
 all from Sheba will come,
 bearing gold and frankincense
 42:10–12 and heralding the praises of Jehovah.
<sup>7</sup> All Kedar's flocks will gather to you,
 the rams of Nebaioth will serve you;
 they shall be accepted as offerings on my altar,
 56:7 and thus I will make glorious my house of glory.
<sup>8</sup> Who are these, aloft like clouds, flying as doves to their portals?

---

<sup>a</sup>6 Hebrew you.

- 9 From the isles they are gathering to me,
 the ships of Tarshish in the lead, 11:11–12 to bring back your children from afar,
 and with them their silver and gold,
 to Jehovah Omnipotent,<sup>b</sup> your God,
 to the Holy One of Israel, 42:21 who has made you illustrious.
- 10 Foreigners will rebuild your walls,
 and their kings will minister to you.
 14:6 Though I struck you in anger,
 I will gladly show you mercy.
- 11 Your gates shall always remain open;
 they shall not be shut day or night,
 2:2–5 that a host of nations may be brought to you and their kings escorted in.
- 12 And the nation or kingdom
 that will not serve you shall perish;
 such nations shall be utterly ruined.
- 35:2 13 The splendor of Lebanon shall become yours—
 cypresses, pines, and firs together—
 to beautify the site of my sanctuary,
 to make glorious the place of my feet.
- 49:7 14 The sons of those who tormented you will come bowing before you;
 all who reviled you will prostrate themselves at your feet.
 They will call you the City of Jehovah,
 Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 54:6–7 15 Although you had been forsaken and abhorred,
 with none passing through your land,
 yet I will make you an everlasting pride,
 the joy of generation after generation.
- 55:1 16 You will suck the milk of the nations,
 suckling at the breasts of kings.
 Then shall you know that I, Jehovah, 43:3, 11 am your Savior,
 that your Redeemer is the Valiant One of Jacob.

<sup>b</sup>9 Literally, the name of Jehovah.

- 54:11–12      <sup>17</sup> In place of copper I will bring gold,
                   in place of iron, silver;
                   in place of wood I will bring copper,
                   in place of stones, iron.
                   I will make peace your rulers
- 9:6–7            and righteousness your oppressors:
- 26:1–2          <sup>18</sup> tyranny shall no more be heard of in your land,
                   nor dispossession or disaster within your borders;
                   you will regard salvation as your walls
                   and homage as your gates.
- 24:23            <sup>19</sup> No longer shall the sun be your light by day,
                   nor the brightness of the moon
                   your illumination<sup>c</sup> at night:
                   Jehovah will be your everlasting light
                   and your God your radiant glory.
- 30:26            <sup>20</sup> Your sun shall set no more,
                   nor your moon wane:
                   to you Jehovah shall be an endless light
                   when your days of mourning are fulfilled.
- 61:3              <sup>21</sup> Your entire people shall be righteous;
                   they shall inherit the earth forever—
                   they are the branch I have planted,
                   the work of my hands, in which I am glorified.
- <sup>22</sup> The least of them shall become a clan,
                   the youngest a mighty nation.
                   I Jehovah will hasten it in its time.

61 The Spirit of my Lord Jehovah is upon me, for Jehovah has anointed me
           to announce good tidings to the lowly;
           he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
           to proclaim liberty to the captives
           and the opening of the eyes to the bound, <sup>2</sup> to herald the year of Jehovah's favor
           and the day of vengeance of our God,
           to comfort all who mourn:

<sup>c</sup>19 So 1QIsa<sup>a</sup>; LXX. Term not in MT.

- 52:1           <sup>3</sup> to endow those who mourn in Zion, bestowing upon them a priestly headpiece
                   in place of ashes,
                   the festal anointing in place of mourning,
                   a resplendent robe in place of a downcast spirit.
- 51:1, 7        They shall be called oaks of righteousness
                   planted by Jehovah for his glory.
- 54:3           <sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins,
                   raise up the old waste places;
                   they will renew the desolate cities demolished generations ago.
- <sup>5</sup> Aliens will tend and pasture your flocks;
                   foreigners will be your farmhands and vinedressers.
- 66:21         <sup>6</sup> But you shall be called the priests of Jehovah and referred to as the ministers of our God.
                   You shall feed on the wealth of the nations and be gratified with their choicest provision.
- 66:5           <sup>7</sup> Because their<sup>a</sup> shame was twofold,
                   and shouted insults were their lot,
                   therefore in their land
                   shall their inheritance be twofold
                   and everlasting joy be theirs.
- 35:10         <sup>8</sup> For I Jehovah love just dealings—
                   but I abhor extortion in those who sacrifice—
                   and I will appoint them a sure reward;
                   I will make with them an eternal covenant.
- 54:10         <sup>9</sup> Their offspring shall be renowned among the nations,
                   their posterity in the midst of the peoples;
                   all who see them will acknowledge that they are of the lineage Jehovah has blessed.
- 51:5-8        <sup>10</sup> I rejoice exceedingly in Jehovah;
                   my soul delights in my God.
                   For he clothes me in garments of salvation,
                   he arrays me in a robe of righteousness—
                   like a bridegroom dressed in priestly attire,
                   or a bride adorned with her jewels.
- 49:18

<sup>a</sup>7 Hebrew your.

35:1 <sup>11</sup> For as the earth brings forth its vegetation, and as a garden causes what is sown to spring up in it,
so will my Lord Jehovah
45:8 cause righteousness and praise to spring up in the presence of all nations.

62 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent; 49:6 for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain still till her righteousness shines like a light,
her salvation like a flaming torch.
<sup>2</sup> The nations shall behold your righteousness
60:1-3 and all their rulers your glory;
you shall be called by a new name
conferred by the mouth of Jehovah.

<sup>3</sup> Then shall you be a crown of glory
in the hand of Jehovah,
a royal diadem in the palm of your God.
60:15 <sup>4</sup> You shall no more be called the forsaken one,
nor your land referred to as desolate;
you shall be known as her in whom I delight
and your land considered espoused.
For Jehovah shall delight in you,
and your land shall be espoused.

<sup>5</sup> As a young man weds a virgin, 49:22 so shall your sons wed you;
as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

52:8 <sup>6</sup> I have appointed watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem, who shall not be silent day or night.
You who call upon Jehovah, let not up <sup>7</sup> nor give him respite till he reestablishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned in the earth.

52:10* <sup>8</sup> Jehovah has sworn by his right hand, his mighty arm:
I will no more let your grain be food for your enemies,
nor shall foreigners drink the new wine you have toiled for.
<sup>9</sup> Those who harvest it shall eat it, 37:30 giving praise to Jehovah;
those who gather it shall drink it within the environs of my sanctuary.

- 40:3-5 <sup>10</sup> Pass on, go through gates;
prepare the way for the people!
- 11:10, 12 Excavate, pave a highway cleared of stones;
raise the ensign to the nations!
- <sup>11</sup> Jehovah has made proclamation to the end of the earth:
Tell the Daughter of Zion,
See, your Salvation comes,
40:10 his reward with him, his work preceding him.
- <sup>12</sup> They shall be called the holy people,
the redeemed of Jehovah;
and you shall be known as in demand,
52:9 a city never deserted.

63 Who is this coming from Edom in red-stained garments?
Who is this from Bozrah, arrayed in majesty,
pressing forward in the strength of his power?
It is I, who am mighty to save,
41:1-2 announcing righteousness!

- <sup>2</sup> Why are you clothed in red, your garments
like those who tread grapes in the winepress?
- <sup>3</sup> Alone I have trodden out a vatful;
of the nations no one was with me.
I trod them down in my anger;
10:5-6 in my wrath I trampled them.
Their lifeblood spattered my garments,
and I have stained my whole attire.
- <sup>4</sup> For I had resolved on a day of vengeance,
and the year of my redeemed had come.
- 59:15-16 <sup>5</sup> I glanced around, but none would lend help;
I glared, but no one would assist.
So my own arm brought about salvation for me,
and my wrath, it assisted me.
- 34:2, 8 <sup>6</sup> I trod nations underfoot in my anger;
I made them drunk by my rage
when I cast their glory to the ground.
- <sup>7</sup> I will recount in praise of Jehovah
Jehovah's loving favors,
26:12 according to all that Jehovah has done for us,

- 38:19 according to the great kindness
he has mercifully and most graciously rendered the house of Israel.
- 8 For he thought, Surely they are my people,
sons who will not play false;
and so he became their Savior:
- 37:36 9 with all their troubles he troubled himself,
the angel of his presence delivering them.
In his love and compassion
he himself redeemed them;
he lifted them up and carried them
all the days of old.
- 46:3-4 10 Yet they rebelled and grieved his holy Spirit, till he became their enemy
and himself fought against them.
- 1:2, 24 11 Then his people<sup>a</sup> recalled the days of Moses of old:<sup>b</sup>
Where is he who brought them up out of the Sea
with the shepherd of his flock?
Where is he who put into him his holy Spirit, 12 who made his glorious arm proceed
at the right hand of Moses,
who divided the waters before them,
making an everlasting name for himself
51:9-10 13 when he led them through the deep?
Like the horse of the desert, they stumbled not;
14 like cattle descending the slopes of ravines,
it was the Spirit of Jehovah that guided them.<sup>c</sup>
So you lead your people, O Jehovah, 12:4-6 acquiring illustrious renown.
- 57:15 15 O look down from heaven,
from your holy and glorious celestial abode,
and behold!
Where now are your zeal and your might?
The yearnings of your bosom and your compassion are withheld from us!

- 16 Surely you are our Father!
 41:8-9      Though Abraham does not know us
                  or Israel recognize us,
                  you, O Jehovah, are our Father;
                  Our Redeemer from Eternity is your name.
- 65:2      17 Why, O Jehovah, have you made us stray from your ways, hardening our hearts so that we do not fear you?
                  Relent,<sup>d</sup> for the sake of your servants,
                  the tribes that are your inheritance.
- 64:10-11      18 But a little while had your people possessed the holy place
                  when our enemies trod down your sanctuary.
- 43:26-28      19 We have become as those whom you have never ruled
                  and who have not been known by your name

- 64 O that you would rend the heavens and descend,
                  the mountains melting at your presence—
                  2 as when fire is lit for boiling water, which bubbles over from the heat—
                  to make yourself known to your adversaries,
                  the nations trembling at your presence—
 2:19, 21      3 as when you performed awesome things unexpected by us: your descent of old, 31:4      when the mountains quaked before you!
- 4 Never has it been heard or perceived by the ear,
                  nor has any eye seen a God besides you, 33:2-3      who acts thus on behalf of those who wait for him.
- 5 But you wound those of us
                  who joyfully perform righteousness,
                  who remember you by following your ways—<sup>a</sup>that in them we might ever be saved.<sup>a</sup>
- 42:24      Alas, you were roused to anger when we sinned, 6 and now we have altogether become as those defiled,
                  the sum of our righteousness as a menstruous rag.
                  We are decaying like leaves, all of us;
 4:4      our sins, like a wind, sweep us away.

<sup>a</sup>5 Phrase transposed; in the text it follows sinned.

- 59:1–2      7 Yet none calls upon your name,
                   or rouses himself to take hold of you.
                   For you have hidden your face from us and enfeebled<sup>b</sup> us at the hand of our iniquities.
- 63:16      8 Nevertheless, you are our Father, O Jehovah;
                   we are the clay and you are the potter,
                   and we are all alike the work of your hands.<sup>c</sup>
- 57:16      9 Be not exceedingly angry, O Jehovah;
                   remember not iniquity forever.
                   See, consider that we are all your people!
- 6:11      10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness;
                   Zion is a desert, Jerusalem a desolation.
- 1:7      11 Our glorious holy temple
                   where our fathers praised you
                   has been burned with fire,
                   and all places dear to us lie in ruins.
- 12 At all this, O Jehovah, will you restrain yourself,
                   in silence letting us suffer so exceedingly?

- 65 I was available to those who did not inquire of me;<sup>a</sup>
                   I was accessible to those who did not seek me.
                   I said, Here am I; I am here,
                   to a nation that did not invoke my name.
- 55:6–7      2 I held out my hands all the day to a defiant people,
                   who walk in ways that are not good,
                   following their own imagination—
- 1:29      3 a people who constantly provoke me to my face, sacrificing in parks, making smoke upon bricks, 4 who sit in sepulchres, spend nights in hideouts,
                   who eat swine's flesh,
                   66:17      their bowls full of polluted broth,
- 5 who think, Keep your distance,
                   don't come near me; I am holier than you!
                   Such are a smoke to my nostrils,
                   66:24      a fire smoldering all day long.

- 3:11           <sup>6</sup> See, it is written before me that I will not be still till I have paid back<sup>b</sup> into their bosom
- <sup>7</sup> their<sup>c</sup> own iniquities and their<sup>c</sup> fathers' alike,
                  says Jehovah.
- 57:5-6        To those who kindle sacrifice in the mountains,
                  who affront me on the hills, I will measure out
                  in their laps the payment that has accrued.
- <sup>8</sup> Thus says Jehovah:
                  As when there is juice in a cluster of grapes
                  and someone says, Don't destroy it, it is still good,
                  so I will do for the sake of my servants 48:9           by not destroying everything:
- <sup>9</sup> I will extract offspring out of Jacob,
                  and out of Judah heirs of my mountains;
                  my chosen ones shall inherit them
                  my servants shall dwell there.
- 30:23        <sup>10</sup> Sharon shall become pasture for flocks,
                  and the Valley of Achor a resting place
                  for the herds of my people who seek me.
- 1:28         <sup>11</sup> As for you who forsake Jehovah and forget my holy mountain, who spread tables for Luck
                  and pour mixed wines for Fortune,
- 34:6-7       <sup>12</sup> I will destine you to the sword;
                  all of you shall succumb to the slaughter.
                  For when I called, you did not respond;
50:2         when I spoke, you would not give heed.
                  You did what was evil in my eyes;
                  you chose to do what was not my will.
- <sup>13</sup> Therefore thus says my Lord Jehovah:
55:1-2       My servants shall eat indeed,
                  while you shall hunger;
                  my servants shall drink indeed,
                  while you shall thirst;
65:18       my servants shall rejoice indeed,
                  while you shall be dismayed.

<sup>b</sup>6   Text adds and paid back, a probable duplication.

<sup>c</sup>7, <sup>c</sup>7   So LXX; MT your.

- 66:14 <sup>14</sup> My servants shall shout indeed, for gladness of heart,
while you shall cry out with heartbreak,
howling from brokenness of spirit.
- 1:10 <sup>15</sup> Your name shall be left to serve my chosen ones as a curse
when my Lord Jehovah slays you.
But his servants he will call by a different name.
- 45:23 <sup>16</sup> Those of them who invoke blessings
on themselves in the earth shall do so by the true God,
and those of them who swear oaths in the earth
shall do so by the God of truth.
The troubles of the past shall be forgotten
and hidden from my eyes.
- 66:22 <sup>17</sup> See, I create new heavens and a new earth;
former events shall not be remembered
or recalled to mind.
- 60:15 <sup>18</sup> Rejoice, then, and be glad forever in what I create.
See, I create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people a joy.
- <sup>19</sup> I will delight in Jerusalem, rejoice in my people;
no more shall be heard there
the sound of weeping or the cry of distress.
- 13:15-16 <sup>20</sup> No more shall there be infants alive but a few days,
or the aged who do not live out their years;
those who die young shall be a hundred years old,
and those who fail to reach a hundred shall be accursed.
- 62:8-9 <sup>21</sup> When men build houses, they will dwell in them;
when they plant vineyards, they will eat their fruit.
<sup>22</sup> They shall not build so that others may dwell,
or plant so that others may eat.
The lifetime of my people shall be as the lifetime of a tree;
my chosen ones shall outlast the work of their hands.
- 61:9 <sup>23</sup> They shall not exert themselves in vain,
or bear children doomed for calamity.
For they are of the lineage of those Jehovah has blessed,
and their posterity with them.
- 58:9 <sup>24</sup> Before they call I will reply;
while they are yet speaking I will respond.

11:6-9      <sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will graze alike,
                  and the lion will eat straw like the ox;
                  as for the serpent, dust shall be its food:
                  there shall be no harm or injury done
                  throughout my holy mountain, says Jehovah.

66

Thus says Jehovah:

The heavens are my throne
and the earth is my footstool.

What house would you build me?

What would serve me as a place of rest?

40:12, 22    <sup>2</sup> These are all things my hand has made,
                  and thus all came into being, says Jehovah.

And yet I have regard for those

57:15            who are of a humble and contrite spirit and who are vigilant for my word.

<sup>3</sup> But whoever slaughters an ox

is as one who kills a man,

43:25            and whoever sacrifices a lamb,

as one who breaks a dog's neck;

whoever presents a grain offering

is as one who offers swine's blood,

and whoever burns incense,

as one who venerates idols.

65:2            Just as they have preferred to go their own ways,
                  their souls delighting in their abominations,

<sup>4</sup> so will I prescribe intrigues for them

51:13            and bring upon them the thing they dread.

For when I called, no one responded;

when I spoke, none gave heed.

They did what was evil in my eyes;

65:12            they chose to do what was not my will.

50:4            you who are vigilant for his word:

Your brethren who abhor you,

and exclude you because of my name, say,

Let Jehovah manifest his glory,

that we may see cause for your joy!

41:11            But it is they who shall suffer shame.

- 11:4           6 Hark, a tumult from the city, a noise from the temple!
                   It is the voice of Jehovah paying his enemies what is due them.
- 9:6           7 Before she is in labor, she gives birth;
                   before her ordeal overtakes her, she delivers a son!
- 55:5           8 Who has heard the like,
                   or who has seen such things?
                   Can the earth labor but a day
                   and a nation be born at once?
                   For as soon as she was in labor,
                   Zion gave birth to her children.
- 45:11          9 Shall I bring to a crisis and not bring on birth?
                   says Jehovah.
                   When it is I who cause the birth,
                   shall I hinder it? says your God.
- 65:18         10 Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
                   all who love her;
                   join in her celebration, all who mourn for her.
- 49:23         11 From now on nurse contentedly
                   at her consoling breasts;
                   draw at your pleasure
                   from the abundance of her bosom.<sup>a</sup>
- 60:5, 11      12 For thus says Jehovah:
                   See, I will extend peace to her like a river,
                   the bounty<sup>b</sup> of the nations like a stream in flood.
                   Then shall you nurse and be carried upon the hip
                   and dandled on the knees.
- 49:13         13 As one who is comforted by his mother
                   I will comfort you;
                   for Jerusalem you shall be comforted.
- 65:13-15      14 Your heart shall rejoice to see it,
                   your limbs flourish like sprouting grass,
                   when the hand of Jehovah
                   shall be manifest among his servants
                   and his rage among his enemies.

<sup>a</sup>11 Or, glory.

<sup>b</sup>12 Or, glory.

- 19:1           <sup>15</sup> See, Jehovah comes with fire,
                   his chariots like a whirlwind,
                   to retaliate in furious anger,
                   to rebuke with conflagrations of fire.
- 34:5, 9       <sup>16</sup> For with fire and with his sword shall Jehovah execute judgment on all flesh,
                   and those slain by Jehovah shall be many.

<sup>17</sup> As for the cultists who fornicate in the parks, the devotees of one in the center, who eat the flesh of swine and prawn and rodents—they with [their practices and ideas]<sup>f</sup> shall be made an end of, says Jehovah.

<sup>18</sup> For I will come<sup>d</sup> to gather all nations and tongues, that they may approach and behold my glory.

<sup>19</sup> And I will set a mark upon them, sending those of them who survive to the nations that had not heard the news concerning me, nor seen my glory—to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud (the archers), to Tubal and Javan, and to the distant isles. And they shall declare my glory among the nations<sup>20</sup> and shall bring back all your brethren from throughout the nations to Jerusalem my holy mountain, says Jehovah, as offerings to Jehovah—on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and dromedaries—just as the Israelites brought offerings in pure vessels to the house of Jehovah. <sup>21</sup> Of them likewise I will accept men to be priests and Levites, says Jehovah.

<sup>22</sup> And as the new heavens and the new earth which I make shall endure before me, says Jehovah, so shall your offspring and name endure. <sup>23</sup> And New Moon after New Moon, Sabbath after Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, says Jehovah. <sup>24</sup> And they shall go out and look upon the corpses of the people who transgressed against me, whose worms do not die and whose fire shall not be extinguished. They shall be a horror to all flesh.

 32:6 perverse things concerning Jehovah
 33:2 O Jehovah, be favorable toward us;
 33:5 Jehovah is supreme, for he dwells
 33:6 fear of Jehovah shall be your riches
 33:10 says Jehovah; I will now become 33:21 Jehovah cause us to dwell there, a 33:22 plunder. For Jehovah is our Judge,
 33:22 Jehovah is our Lawgiver. Jehovah
 34:6 sentenced to damnation. Jehovah
 34:6 fat of rams. For Jehovah will hold 34:16 Jehovah: None is unaccounted for 35:2 of Jehovah and the splendor of our 35:10 of Jehovah shall return; they shall 36:7 rely on Jehovah our God, is he not 36:10 without Jehovah? For Jehovah told 36:15 in Jehovah by saying, Jehovah will 36:18 saying, Jehovah will save us. Were 36:20 my hand, that Jehovah should save 37:1 entered the house of Jehovah. And 37:4 And may be that Jehovah your God has 37:4 things Jehovah your God has heard 37:6 Jehovah: Be not afraid because of 37:14 the house of Jehovah and unrolled
 37:14 Jehovah. And Hezekiah prayed to 37:15 to Jehovah and said, O Jehovah of 37:16 O Jehovah of Hosts, God of Israel,
 37:17 . . . O Jehovah, give ear and hear; O
 37:17 O Jehovah, open your eyes and see.
 37:18 Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have 37:20 now; O Jehovah our God, deliver us
 37:20 you alone are Jehovah. Then Isaiah 37:21 saying, Thus says Jehovah, the God
 37:22 is what Jehovah has spoken against 37:32 of Jehovah of Hosts will accomplish 37:33 says Jehovah concerning the king of 37:34 Jehovah. I will protect this city and 37:36 Then the angel of Jehovah went out
 38:1 to him and said, Thus says Jehovah
 38:2 prayed to Jehovah: I beseech you to 38:3 you to remember; O Jehovah, how I 38:4 the word of Jehovah came to Isaiah:
 38:5 Thus says Jehovah, the God of your

 40:13 comprehended the Spirit of Jehovah
 40:27 obscured from Jehovah; our cause is 40:28 have you not heard? Jehovah is the 40:31 hope in Jehovah shall be renewed in 41:4 I, Jehovah, first and last, am he. The 41:13 Jehovah your God, hold you by the 41:14 says Jehovah; your Redeemer is the 41:16 you rejoice in Jehovah and glory in 41:17 I Jehovah will answer their want; I,
 41:21 it. Present your case, says Jehovah;
 42:5 law. Thus says Jehovah God, who
 42:6 I Jehovah have rightfully called you 42:8 am Jehovah; that is my name. I will 42:10 to you. Sing to Jehovah a new song 42:12 let them give glory to Jehovah, and 42:13 him. Jehovah will come forth like a 42:19 as the servant of Jehovah—seeing 42:21 is the will of Jehovah, that, because

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

44:6 says Jehovah, the King of Israel, the 44:6 Jehovah of Hosts, their Redeemer: I
 44:23 heavens, for what Jehovah has done
 44:23 trees therein. Jehovah has redeemed
 44:24 Thus says Jehovah, your Redeemer
 44:24 am, Jehovah, the Maker of all things, 45:1 Thus says Jehovah to his anointed, to 45:3 know that it is I Jehovah, the God of 45:5 me not. I am Jehovah, there is none
 45:6 Jehovah, and that there is none other 45:7 I, Jehovah, do all these things. Rain
 45:8 forthwith. I, Jehovah, create it. Woe
 45:11 Thus says Jehovah, the Holy One of 45:11 without price or bribe, says Jehovah
 45:14 says Jehovah: The wealth of Egypt
 45:17 But Israel is saved by Jehovah with 45:18 For thus says Jehovah who created
 45:18 Jehovah, there is none other. I speak
 45:19 I Jehovah tell righteousness and am

 45:25 In Jehovah shall all Israel's offspring
 47:4 of Israel, whose name is Jehovah of 48:1 the name of Jehovah and invoke his 48:2 of Israel, whose name is Jehovah of 48:14 things? It is him Jehovah loves, who 48:16 Now my Lord Jehovah has sent me;
 48:17 Thus says Jehovah, the Holy One of 48:17 I Jehovah your God instruct you to 48:20 Jehovah has redeemed his servant
 48:22 But there is no peace, says Jehovah
 49:1 peoples: Jehovah called me before I
 49:4 rested with Jehovah, my recompense 49:5 For now Jehovah has said—he who 49:5 I won honor in the eyes of Jehovah
 49:7 of the earth. Thus says Jehovah, the 49:7 themselves, because Jehovah keeps 49:8 Jehovah: at a favorable time I have 49:13 O mountains! Jehovah is comforting
 49:14 Zion said, Jehovah has forsaken me
 49:18 I live, says Jehovah, you shall adorn
 49:22 says my Lord Jehovah: I will lift up 49:23 that I am Jehovah, and that they who 49:25 Yet thus says Jehovah: The warrior's
 49:26 know that I Jehovah am your Savior
 50:1 Jacob. Thus says Jehovah: Where is 50:4 Lord Jehovah has endowed me with 50:5 my Lord Jehovah has opened my ear
 50:7 Because my Lord Jehovah helps me
 50:9 my Lord Jehovah sustains me. Who 50:10 among you fears Jehovah and heeds
 50:10 in the name of Jehovah and relies on 51:1 seekers of Jehovah: Look to the rock
 51:3 Jehovah is comforting Zion, bringing 51:3 her desert as the garden of Jehovah.
 51:9 arm of Jehovah! Bestir yourself, as 51:11 Let the ransomed of Jehovah return
 51:13 Jehovah, your Maker—who suspends

 53:10 Jehovah willed to crush him, causing 53:10 purposes of Jehovah might prosper in 54:1 those of the espoused, says Jehovah.
 54:5 is Jehovah of Hosts; he who redeems 54:6 the earth. Jehovah calls you back as a 54:8 you, says Jehovah, who redeems you
 54:10 Jehovah, who has compassion on you 54:10 shall be taught by Jehovah, and great 54:13 servants of Jehovah, and such is their 54:17 their vindication by me, says Jehovah
 54:17 —because of Jehovah your God, the 55:5 Jehovah while he is present; call upon 55:6 thoughts. Let them return to Jehovah
 55:7 are your ways my ways, says Jehovah

 56:8 my Lord Jehovah, who gathers others
 56:8 are near, says Jehovah who heals him 57:19 and the glory of Jehovah will be your 58:8 should you call, Jehovah will respond
 58:9 the noonday. Jehovah will direct you 58:11 holy day of Jehovah venerable, and if 58:13 then shall you delight in Jehovah, and
 58:14 By his mouth Jehovah has spoken it
 59:13 denying Jehovah, backing away from
 59:15 Jehovah saw that there was no justice
 59:19 From the West men will fear Jehovah 59:19 impelled by the Spirit of Jehovah. But 59:20 repent of transgression, says Jehovah
 59:21 my covenant with them, says Jehovah
 59:21 of their offspring, says Jehovah, from 60:1 glory of Jehovah has risen upon you!
 60:2 you Jehovah will shine; over you his
 60:6 and heralding the praises of Jehovah.
 60:9 to Jehovah Omnipotent, your God, to 60:14 call you the City of Jehovah, Zion of 61:8 For I Jehovah love just dealings—but 61:9 of the lineage Jehovah has blessed. I 61:10 I rejoice exceedingly in Jehovah; my 61:11 in it. so will my Lord Jehovah cause 62:2 by the mouth of Jehovah. Then shall 62:3 glory in the hand of Jehovah, a royal 62:4 For Jehovah shall delight in you, and 62:6 You who call upon Jehovah, let not 62:8 the earth. Jehovah has sworn by his 62:9 shall eat it, giving praise to Jehovah;

 62:11 Jehovah has made proclamation to 62:12 redeemed of Jehovah; and you shall 63:7 of Jehovah Jehovah's loving favors,
 63:7 favors, according to all that Jehovah
 63:14 ravines, it was the Spirit of Jehovah
 63:14 So you led your people, O Jehovah, 63:16 you, O Jehovah, are our Father; Our 63:17 Why, O Jehovah, have you made us
 64:8 Jehovah; we are the clay and you are
 64:9 Be not exceedingly angry, O Jehovah
 64:12 all this, O Jehovah, will you restrain
 65:7 and their fathers' alike, says Jehovah 65:8 Thus says Jehovah: As when there is 65:11 me. As for you who forsake Jehovah
 65:13 says my Lord Jehovah: My servants
 65:15 my Lord Jehovah slays you. But his 65:23 lineage of those Jehovah has blessed

 66:1 Thus, says Jehovah: The heavens are 66:2 came into being, says Jehovah. And 66:5 of Jehovah, you who are vigilant for 66:5 my name, say, Let Jehovah manifest
 66:6 voice of Jehovah paying his enemies
 66:9 and not bring on birth? says Jehovah
 66:12 thus says Jehovah: See, I will extend 66:14 of Jehovah shall be manifest among 66:15 Jehovah comes with fire, his chariots
 66:16 with his sword shall Jehovah execute 66:16 those slain by Jehovah shall be many 66:17 ideas] made an end of, says Jehovah.
 66:20 mountain, says Jehovah, as offerings 66:20 Jehovah—on horses, in chariots and 66:20 pure vessels to the house of Jehovah
 66:21 be priests and Levites, says Jehovah.
 66:22 says Jehovah, so shall your offspring
 66:23 to worship before me, says Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

20:6 deliverance from the king of Assyria!
 23:15 the lifetime of a king. And at the end 30:6 roaring king of beasts, of vipers and 32:1 is in Jerusalem. A king shall reign in 33:17 sure. Your eyes shall behold the King 33:22 Jehovah is our King; he himself will 36:1 King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib
 36:1 Sennacherib king of Assyria marched 36:2 king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh with 36:2 army from Lachish to King Hezekiah 36:4 Thus says the great king, the king of 36:6 Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all 36:8 now, wager with my lord the king of 36:13 the great king, the king of Assyria
 36:14 king of Assyria! Thus says the king:
 36:15 into the hand of the king of Assyria.
 36:16 the king of Assyria: Make peace with 36:18 the king of Assyria? Where are the 36:21 for the king commanded them not to 37:1 had said. When King Hezekiah heard 37:5* when King Hezekiah's servants came 37:4 the king of Assyria has sent to scorn
 37:6 you have heard the king of Assyria's
 37:8 when Rabshakeh heard that the king 37:9 Tirhakah king of Cush had set out to 37:10 Hezekiah king of Judah: Let not your 37:10 into the hand of the king of Assyria
 37:21 king of Assyria, this is what Jehovah
 37:33 says Jehovah concerning the king of 37:37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke 37:38 succeeded him as king. In those days
 38:6 of the hand of the king of Assyria; I 38:9 Hezekiah king of Judah's account of 39:1 king of Babylon, sent letters and gifts
 39:3 to King Hezekiah and said, What did 39:7 in the palace of the king of Babylon.
 41:21 submit your evidence, says the King
 43:15 One, Creator of Israel, am your King
 44:6 Israel. Thus says Jehovah, the King
 57:9 the king and increase your perfumes

 13:19 most splendid of kingdoms, the glory 14:16 earth shake and kingdoms quake, who 23:11 distress kingdoms; he will give orders 23:17 hire herself out to all the kingdoms of 37:16 all the kingdoms of the earth. It is you 37:20 hand, that all kingdoms on earth may 47:5 you be called, Mistress of Kingdoms.

KINGS

1:1 Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah:
 10:8 commanders kings, one and all? Has 37:11 have heard what the kings of Assyria 37:13 in Tel Assar? Where are the kings of 37:13 the kings of the cities of Sepharvaim

37:18 O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have 49:7 in authority: Kings shall rise up when 49:23 shoulders. Kings shall be your foster
 52:15 kings shutting their mouths at him—
 60:3 kings to the brightness of your dawn.
 60:10 kings will minister to you. Though I

KNOW

1:3 Israel does not know; my people are
 5:19 soon come to pass, and we will know
 9:9 shall know of it, who say in pride and 19:10 The textile workers will know despair
 19:21 Egyptians shall know Jehovah in that 21:10 To you who know me, who are of my 29:15 will see us? Who will know? What a 37:20 on earth may know that you alone are 37:28 up. But I know where you dwell, and 40:13 a man should let him know his plan?
 41:20 that all may see it and know, consider
 41:22 and know whether they were fulfilled
 41:23 we may know you are gods. Perform
 41:26 this beforehand, so we would know,
 42:16 the blind by a way they did not know 45:3 you may know that it is I Jehovah, the

45:6 sets may know that without me there
 47:11 shall not know how to avert by bribes
 49:23 you know that I am Jehovah, and that
 49:26 know that I Jehovah am your Savior,
 50:4 learned tongue, that I may know how 51:7 me, you who know righteousness, O 52:6 my people come to know my name; in 52:6 in that day they shall know that I, who 55:5 know; a nation that did not know you

MORE

1:13 Bring no more worthless offerings
2:4 any more. O house of Jacob, come
5:4 What more could have been done
13:12 men more rare than gold of Ophir
14:20 never more be mentioned! Prepare 15:9 impose more than this upon Dibon
16:4 When oppressors are no more and 17:14 shall be no more. This is the lot of 19:7 away and be no more. Fishermen
23:10 of Tarshish: the harbor is no more 23:12 will say, You will frolic no more, 24:20 shall rise no more. In that day will 25:2 —heathen mansions shall no more
26:14 no more, spirits who will not rise 26:21 it and no more conceal its slain. In 27:4 I have no more anger toward her.
29:22 no more. For when he sees among 32:10 little more than a year you shall be 37:31 survives shall once more take root
40:15 from a bucket, counting no more 43:17 down as one, to rise no more, they 43:25 your sins no more. Recount for me 47:1 You shall no more be spoken of as 51:22 shall drink no more from the bowl
52:1 No more shall the uncircumcised 54:4 remember no more the reproach of 54:9 would no more flood the earth. So 54:9 to have no more anger toward you 60:18 more be heard of in your land, nor 60:20 set no more, nor your moon wane:
62:4 of your God. You shall no more be 62:8 no more let your grain be food for 65:19 my people; no more shall be heard
65:20 cry of distress. No more shall there

PEOPLE

1:3 not know; my people are insensible
1:4 astray, a people weighed down by
1:10 our God, you people of Gomorrah!
2:6 Jehovah, have forsaken your people
3:5 over them. People will oppress one 3:7 leader of the people. Jerusalem will
3:12 have done! As for my people, babes
3:12 for my people, your leaders misled
3:14 to trial the elders of his people and
3:15 you mean by oppressing my people
5:7 people of Judah his cherished grove
5:13 my people exiled without knowing
5:25 his people: he draws back his hand
6:5 among a people of unclean speech:
6:9 say to these people, Go on hearing,
6:10 heart of these people grow fat; dull

6:13 a tenth of the people remain in it or 7:2 minds of his people were shaken, as 7:17 upon you and your people and your 8:6 Because these people have rejected
8:11 to follow the ways of these people.
8:12 conspiracy all that these people call 8:19 Should not a people inquire of their 9:2 of the nations. The people walking 9:9 entire people—Ephraim and those 9:13 people do not turn back to him who 9:16 the tail. The leaders of these people
9:19 is scorched and people are but fuel
10:2 depriving the poor of my people of 10:6 people deserving of my vengeance
10:22 though your people, O Israel, be as 10:24 my people who inhabit Zion, be not
11:11 to reclaim the remnant of his people
11:16 remnant of his people who shall be 13:14 to his own people and everyone flee 14:20 and murdered your people. May the 14:32 his longsuffering people find refuge
18:2 to a people perpetually on the move
18:2 far and wide, a people continually
18:7 far and wide, a people continually
19:25 Egypt my people, Assyria the work

26:11 your zeal for your people when the 26:20 O my people, enter your chambers
27:11 not a discerning people. Therefore 28:5 glory to the remnant of his people:
28:11 these people, to whom he said, This 28:14 who preside over these people in 29:13 Because these people approach me
29:14 astound these people with wonder
30:5 people who will avail them nothing
30:6 to a people who cannot profit them
30:9 a rebellious people, sons who break
30:19 O people of Zion, O inhabitants of 30:26 the fracture of his people and heals
32:18 calm forever. My people shall dwell
33:19 insolent people are not to be seen, a
